SLAYER OF HUSBAND TO CLAIM INSANITY

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—(UP)—Mrs. Amy Dumbrell, gray-haired 50-year-old wife and mother, will plead temporary insanity when she goes to trial on charges of slaying John Dumbrell, former banker, broker and city official, it was indicated today.

Attorney W. T. Sweigert, retained to defend the woman who shot her husband then called police in an argument arising from Dumbrell's alleged association with another woman and a married life which had been "just plain hell," revealed defense plans. "There can be no doubt," he said, "that the shooting was not premeditated and that the mind of Mrs. Dumbrell snapped in that final argument with her husband over his devotion to another woman."

"Mrs. Dumbrell ordinarily is a normal, average woman. The night of this shooting is something entirely different."

CONDITION OF LIVERMORE, JR., IS IMPROVED

BULLETIN
SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Dec. 2.—(UP)—Mrs. Dorothea Livermore, 38, divorced wife of Jesse Livermore, famous New York stock speculator, today formally was charged with assault with intent to commit murder in the shooting of her 16-year-old son, Jesse, jr.

A slight gain by Jesse Livermore, jr., son of a famous New York stock trader, shot by his mother in an argument over liquor drinking, prompted his action, Coen said. He announced he would go before Justice of the Peace Ernest Wagner with the complaint at 10 o'clock.

Meanwhile the mother's attorneys, contending the shooting was accidental, were thwarted in an effort to obtain a statement from

PREDICTS SUCCESS FOR TOWNSEND PLAN

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 2.—(UP)—The Townsend movement will be made a federal law during the next session of congress, Edward F. Trefz, Los Angeles, told a large gathering of followers of the new pension advocate here last night.

"The movement now has advanced to a point where it promises to show forceful influence on the deliberations of the next congress," Trefz said.

Trefz said "the national administration, seeking re-election, will have seen the strength of the Townsend movement and will enlist its help in getting back into office."

He said there would be no direct lobby for the pension plan in the next congress, but 50,000 members of the inner organization known as the Townsend National Legion, would encamp in Washington beginning Jan. 1 to stage mass demonstrations in favor of the pension.

Finds Diamond In Gizzard Of Fat Chicken

ROANOKE, Va., Dec. 2.—(UP)—This is Mrs. W. G. Norman's story and she's sticking to it. A few weeks ago she lost a $500 diamond setting from a ring. Yesterday she decided to have chicken for dinner. From her well-stocked yard she grabbed a fat hen. In its gizzard she says she found her missing diamond.

NEW CORN AND HOG PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED

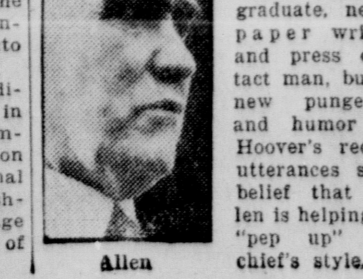

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—(UP)—A 1936-37 corn-hog adjustment program, designed to maintain a balance between producer and consumer interests, was announced today by Henry A. Wallace, secretary of agriculture.

The new plan proposes to permit a 30 per cent increase in hog production next year over 1935, preparing the way for possible reduction in pork prices, and to reduce corn acreage to about 35,000,000 acres, an increase of about 1,400,000 acres over the amount harvested this year.

The bureau of agricultural economics reported results of a survey showing that AAA processing taxes either had been passed on to the consumer or had been paid indirectly by the farmer who re-

CLIPPER SHIP MAY STOP OFF IN SANTA ANA

SECRETARY Howard I. Wood of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce today inaugurated a movement designed to honor Glenn Martin, internationally known airplane manufacturer whose brilliant career was launched in Santa Ana by having one of the great trans-Pacific clipper ships he has built stop in Orange county.

The third of the million-dollar clipper ships Martin has built for Pan-American Airways now is completed and will soon have its test run. It is the chamber of commerce's idea.

The ship will stop at Newport Beach or at the Santa Ana airport just south of Santa Ana.

No definite date for the proposed event has been set, because the chamber of commerce must await word from the airplane company before arrangements are completed. It is planned to set aside a day to be "Glenn Martin Day," and to have a half-holiday declared for the occasion, if it is possible to have the China clipper come to Orange county.

Mayor F. C. Rowland recently attended a luncheon event at San Pedro as a member of a Pacific coast committee which included W. H. Spurgeon and T. E. Stephenson of Santa Ana, when one of

ETHIOPIAN TROOPS DENY POISON RUMOR

LONDON, Dec. 2.—(UP)—The News Chronicle correspondent at Dessay, chief northern war base of the Ethiopian army, reported today that rumors Lij Yassu, deposed emperor, met his death by poison, caused disaffection among soldiers and populace.

Emperor Haile Selassie, newly arrived at the war base, was said by the correspondent to have met a hostile reception. Some troops threatened to refuse to go to the front, the correspondent said.

Lij Yassu died recently after spending the years since his deposition in chains. The official statement on his death said he died of paralysis.

Anger over the poison rumor, the News Chronicle correspondent said, was due to the Ethiopian tradition against the killing of political enemies.

Japan Sends Warning On Naval Plans

Tells London Will Endeavor to Defend Position if Parley Fails

LONDON, Dec. 2.—(UP)—Japan is anxious to avoid starting a new naval race, "but if the conference starting on December 9 fails to result in a new treaty, we shall have to take steps to safeguard Japan's position," Admiral Osami Nagano, chief of the Japanese delegation to the conference, told the United Press today.

"This would not necessarily involve an immediate increase in our building plans," the admiral said. He made his statement in the first interview he has given since the delegation left Japan. It occurred during the rail journey of the delegation from Dover to London, where it arrived this afternoon.

On descending from the train, Nagano issued a statement to Japanese correspondents, declaring difficulties may arise during the conference.

He voiced his "firm determination to secure recognition of Japan's claims" and appealed to the Japanese people for "united support for the success of my task."

During the railway trip, Nagano told the United Press naval parity is vital, not only for prestige, but also for Japan's security.

He added that Japan's security is not threatened at present but he is thinking of future contingencies. Asked what contingency, Nagano said smilingly:

"You know the answer as well as I do."

He revealed that if the others agree, Japan will favor retention of the provisions of the Washington treaty forbidding fortifications of possessions in the Western Pacific.

Limitation of the number and the size of ships, he said, "are two wheels on the same car, and both are needed if the vehicle is to travel."

The strike call was issued and rescinded by George Brown, president of the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees and Motion Picture Operators, Saturday night and again Sunday.

Six Balaban and Kats and Paramount-Public theaters in the Chicago loop and more than 100 others in Illinois were affected by the short-lived walkouts. Operators were out for periods varying from a few minutes to two hours.

Browne was reported en route to Chicago from Washington today for a conference which was to decide whether another strike call would be issued.

NOTED HISTORIAN CALLED BY DEATH

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—(UP)—Dr. James Henry Breasted, noted historian and scholar, and director of the University of Chicago's Oriental Institute, died today of a streptococcus infection. He was 70.

Breasted recently returned from Naples, where he attended the international congress of Orientalists in September. He was ill when his ship arrived here and was taken at once to the hospital.

The trip had been a honeymoon for the 70-year-old Egyptologist who had married Mrs. Imogen H. Richmond, 59, of Chicago, last June. His second wife was a younger sister of the first Mrs. Breasted.

Incompetency Charged in Demands Filed Today With County Clerk

THE RECALL of Charles Kuchel, justice of the peace at Anaheim township during the last decade was demanded in petitions filed today with County Clerk J. M. Backs, carrying 1304 signatures.

The petitions, filed by Louis Heffner, of Anaheim, who was accompanied to the courthouse by Alva E. Hargrave, Justice Kuchel's opponent at the last election, requested the county supervisors to set a date for a recall election, directed against Justice Kuchel.

The petitions charged incompetency as grounds for the recall. Under legal procedure governing recall matters, said Backs, the clerk has 10 days in which to check the signatures, to determine whether they are qualified voters, as legally required. If the petitions are found to have a sufficient number of valid signatures, the

TWO ELECTROCUTED IN STATE PRISON

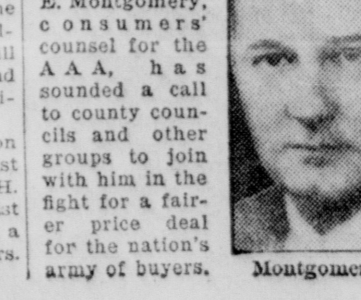

BELLFONTE, Pa., Dec. 2.—(UP)—Two youths who tried to prolong the Capone tradition in the underworld—double crossing and cold killing—were electrocuted today in state prison.

Martin Farrell, 28, and Francis Wiley, 27, died six minutes apart, and with them died the notorious Mais-Legenza gang which terrorized the eastern seaboard from Richmond, Va., to New York.

The crime for which they forfeited their lives was the kidnapping and killing of big "Bill" Weiss, Philadelphia underworld figure. Robert Mals and George Legenza also participated in Weiss' murder but months ago they were electrocuted at Richmond, Va., for another murder.

Anti-Saloon League Will Start Drive

Twenty-eighth Annual Convention Opens Today; "Drys" Optimistic

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 2.—(UP)—With leaders vigorously flaying alcohol and its effects, the Anti-Saloon League of America met today in its twenty-eighth annual convention to launch a new drive for prohibition.

Optimism was the keynote of the meeting as the country's foremost "drys," convinced that repeal has resulted in abuses which will sway public opinion back to prohibition, gathered for the second session.

Memorial services for Billy Sunday, evangelist and militant prohibition exponent who died recently, were held, preceding a meeting at which Charles W. Bryan, of Lincoln, Neb., was the principal speaker.

Bishop William A. Ainsworth, of Macon, Ga., expressed the attitude of the convention when he declared that the young generation is being betrayed by the wet element.

"The real lovers of their country already have started to rethink the fundamentals of this issue," he said, "and their thinking is going to become a resolute avalanche of action which will over throw those who have betrayed the rising generation."

"Every true patriot must fight until the war is over and the chariot wheels of civilization are no longer chained by the demon rum and the politicians who worship at its infamous shrine."

The possibility that Governor Alf Landon, of Kansas, may achieve concerted dry support should he win the Republican presidential nomination next year was expressed by Homer Rodeheaver, of Chicago, who declared that Landon and a balanced budget go hand-in-hand.

Rodeheaver, former assistant to Billy Sunday, referred pointedly to the shooting in California of 16-year-old Jesse Livermore, Jr., by his mother, allegedly while both were under the influence of alcohol, as "the most convincing proof that repeal is a failure."

William E. Johnson, better known as "Bossyfoot" Johnson, 73-year-old veteran prohibition advocate, declared that the country "in the worst condition it has been in forty years," adding that "prohibition is the only solution."

"It makes no difference whether liquor is sold by a doctor of divinity, or a horse thief," he insisted, "the effect is the same. The nearer we get to prohibition the nearer we are to a solution of the problem."

JOE DUNN RESIGNS JUSTICE DEPT. POST

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2.—(UP)—Joseph E. P. Dunn, head of the criminal division of the local department of justice unit, today had submitted his resignation to Washington.

He asked it become effective as soon as a successor could be appointed.

GENEVA, Dec. 2.—(UP)—The Ethiopian foreign minister telegraphed the League of Nations today all Ethiopian troops and civilians are evacuating Harar, strategic point in Eastern Ethiopia, and the town is being kept open only to receive wounded troops.

The telegram to the League secretary-general said: "I have the honor to inform your excellency that in order to spare the civilian population, children, women and all who are non-combatants, as well as foreigners resident in Harar, against possible air bombardment, his majesty the emperor has decided that troops shall forthwith completely evacuate the town, which shall be a depot for wounded from Ogaden and the southern fronts, and not be used for any military purpose whatsoever."

"I therefore would ask you to inform all states who are members of the League of Nations of this decision which has just been taken by my august sovereign and has been executed by the competent authorities."

URGES OIL EMBARGO AGAINST ITALIANS

LONDON, Dec. 2.—(UP)—The advisability of imposing an oil embargo against Italy was understood to have been urged at a special cabinet meeting today by Sir Samuel Hoare, foreign secretary, and Capt. Anthony Eden, secretary for league affairs.

Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin presided. The ostensible purpose of the meeting was to hear Baldwin outline the speech which King George will make in opening parliament tomorrow.

Hoare and Eden were understood to have urged imposition of the oil embargo would hasten Premier Benito Mussolini's submission to more acceptable peace terms than he has offered so far.

Visit Discussed
The cabinet was believed to have discussed Hoare's prospective visit to Premier Pierre Laval in Paris to co-ordinate the British and French views, and also Capt. Eden's attendance at

The youth left three suicide notes addressed to "Dad," "Mother," and "Ted," his brother. The notes indicated he had planned for some time to end his life.

One note read in part: "This suicide has been planned definitely since Thursday before last. This suicide should have taken place last Sunday, when everyone was asleep. I had drunk too much ale, making myself physically and mentally low. I could not pull the trigger."

Another said "pulling this trigger is going to be the hardest task of my life."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—(UP)—A sharp decline in industrial loan applications to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation was cited by Chairman Jesse H. Jones today as evidence of business improvement.

Jones said borrowers were now going to banks and "there is no doubt that banks are really trying to lend."

The RFC reported total authorized industrial loans of $103,000,000 of which only $38,000,000 has been disbursed. The RFC has authority to lend up to $300,000,000.

years, during which the standard of living is improving or declining.

At present, Babson said, the nation is in the improvement period of the first-named cycle.

"All statistics indicate that business is getting better and should soon be back to normal," he said. "Regarding the second cycle, he said America has passed through five such during the past 200 years.

"This means that there have been five times when our political, economic and social system has been temporarily threatened," he said. "I refer to the years of 1650, 1730, 1858 and 1899. During the past few years we have been in the sixth of these downward movements when the standard of living has been declining. How long this downward movement will continue, no one can tell.

"We can enjoy a period of business prosperity and at the same time suffer under a declining standard of living," Babson said.

"I can illustrate this by saying that we can have great waves on the ocean whether the tide is coming in or running out. Therefore, as we are emerging from the business depression, it is up to us now to tackle this more fundamental problem of raising the standard of living. This is a spiritual, rather than a political or economic problem."

Babson said "Notwithstanding the billions which have been spent and the many experiments tried, there are as many unemployed today as when President Roosevelt was elected in 1932."

On the other hand, he pointed out, "factory production today is up to normal and, in many instances, up to the peak of 1929."

Explaining this inconsistency, Babson emphasized that the building industry—great factor in the employment situation—is far below normal.

SHOTGUN DUEL ENDS IN DEATH OF MAN

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2.—(UP)—

A shotgun duel between an irate husband and a roomer at his house, whom he accused of being friendly with his wife, today resulted in the death of one man and the critical wounding of the other.

Orso Christianson, 56, Burbank, the husband, was killed by a shotgun charge from the gun of Henry Baer, 40, the roomer. The side of Baer's face was blown away by blast from Christianson's shotgun.

The two men, accompanied by a friend, Ruben Smith, went on a quail hunting trip into Hill country near Castaic Junction yesterday. Baer said at Newhall hospital where he was taken for treatment.

"We were on friendly terms," Baer told deputy sheriffs. "When we reached the hills Christianson and I went one way and Smith started off by himself.

"Christianson was walking ahead of me. Suddenly he turned and accused me of being too friendly with his wife, Ida. We started to argue.

"He then raised his gun and shot me. I was forced to shoot him in self-defense."

POLICE BAFFLED BY MURDER IN FRESNO

FRESNO, Calif., Dec. 2.—(UP)—

A battered felt hat, pierced by bullet holes and stained with blood which may be that of 14-year-old Mary Stammer, today constituted virtually the only clue held by authorities investigating the slaying of the golden-haired high school girl.

Mary was shot through the head then beaten and partially disrobed a week ago last night as she sat reading in the music room at her parents' home in the exclusive north Fresno suburb.

Since that time, clues and suspects have been questioned and examined on a wholesale basis without developing a single indication of the slayer's identity. His motive apparently was one of degeneracy.

the meeting of the penalties committee of 18 at Geneva on Dec. 12, when the oil embargo will be considered.

The cabinet was reported to have discussed the possibility of the oil embargo might be delayed if Premier Benito Mussolini halts hostilities in Ethiopia and re-opens negotiations with France and Britain on a basis of reasonable conditions.

It was surmised that the cabinet discussed Italy's latest terms for ending the war, which include cession to Italy of a wide strip of territory linking Eritrea with Italian Somaliland by way of Aussa, Harar and Ogaden, and Italian annexation of territory in northwestern Ethiopia, particularly Kafa.

Ready to Concur The cabinet was believed ready to concur if Ethiopia assents to the cession to Italy of the region bordering the British Kenya colony but opposes the surrender of Kafa because it borders the Sudan.

Under the scheme, Ethiopia would be compensated with the grant of an outlet to the sea through British Somaliland.

It was said the cabinet postponed a final decision pending clarification of the fate of Premier Pierre Laval's government in parliament tomorrow.

The consensus of the ministers, it was believed, was in favor of increasing French-British pressure on Mussolini to present new proposals for settlement, but to move for the blockade if his proposals fail to supply a fresh basis for negotiations.

Another subject discussed by the cabinet was believed to have been Canada's attitude on oil sanctions.

It was learned that Britain and France, in the event Mussolini does not come to terms, already have agreed on a common policy in favor of oil sanctions when the committee of 18 meets on Dec. 12. Certain arrangements already have been made by British sources to make the sanctions effective as soon as the committee approves them.

the wounded boy, to support their claims.

Harrison Ryan, her chief counsel, and an associate appeared at the Cottage hospital early today and demanded admittance to question the boy.

They were met by a flat refusal from physicians. District Attorney Percy Heckendorf and Under-sheriff Jack Ross.

Dr. Irving Willis said it would be "several days" before Jesse could be questioned, in event he lives.

The district attorney and Mrs. Livermore's attorney each kept a man on a "death watch" at the hospital, ready to rush into the youth's room for a dying statement in event physicians gave the word.

Physicians feared pneumonia was developing and kept him under an oxygen tent a good part of the time.

As the district attorney and defense counsel jockeyed for a preliminary advantage, Heckendorf questioned two servants at the luxurious Livermore home in Montecito where the Thanksgiving night tragedy occurred.

There appears to be a number of conflicting angles that do not agree wholly with the original story of the affair," he declared.

The original story was given by D. B. Neville, Mrs. Livermore's fiancé, who said Jesse dared his mother to shoot him as a climax to a drinking bout.

Two special policemen stood guard at the $50-a-day hotel bungalow where the white-haired, dapper Jesse Livermore, sr., once known as the "boy wonder of Wall Street," was receiving 30-minute bulletins on his son's condition.

Livermore ordered the guard to keep curious townsfolk away. With him were Paul, 12-year-old brother of Jesse, Jr., and the present Mrs. Livermore. He was divorced from Jesse, Jr.'s mother some years ago.

CHINA CLIPPER ON RETURN TRIP TODAY

GUAM, Dec. 2.—(UP)—

American Airways' China Clipper, piloted by Capt. Edwin C. Musick, was to take off today for Wake Islands, second stop of a four-phase return flight to the United States after an inaugural air mail flight across the Pacific.

The Clipper began the Manila-Guam hop at 2:50 a. m. yesterday (10:50 a. m. PST.) She swept down at her Guam landing base at 6:42 p. m. Guam time (12:42 a. m. Monday PST.)

The Clipper took off from Manila earlier than had been expected to insure a daylight landing at Guam, approximately 1600 miles northeast of the Philippines.

The millions and a quarter dollar airship left without the ostentation which greeted its arrival, attended by a gigantic civic celebration and throngs of enthusiastic islanders.

ceived lower prices for his products.

Simultaneously, the American Liberty League attacked the New Deal farm program as regimenting farmers and creating a "definite challenge to the American form of government."

Under the new adjustment program a corn acreage base and a market hog base will be fixed after appraisal by community committees and review by county allotment committees.

Cooperating producers must agree to plant corn next year on at least 25 per cent of their base acreage. They will be permitted to retire from 10 to 30 per cent of their base acreage for soil-improving or erosion-preventing purposes. Hog growers must agree to porce between 50 and 100 per cent of the base market production.

The 1936 corn adjustment payment will be 35 cents per bushel on the appraised yield times the adjusted acreage, less the pro rata share of local administrative expenses.

U. S. PARTICIPATION IN GAMES OPPOSED

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—(UP)—

Presidents of 40 American colleges today announced their opposition to United States participation in the 1936 Olympic Games and requested the Amateur Athletic Union of the United States and the American Olympic committee to withdraw from the Games if held in Germany.

The Right Rev. Edward T. Heffernan, Episcopal bishop of Maryland, and four additional United States senators endorsed American withdrawal from the Berlin Olympic Games. George Gordon Battle and Henry Smith Leiper of the Committee on Fair Play in Sports announced today.

"As American educators concerned with the freedom of the human intellect and the progress of society," the college presidents' letter said, "we address ourselves to the American Olympic committee and the Amateur Athletic union to register our view that the American team should be withdrawn from participation in the Olympic Games if held in Nazi Germany."

PLANE TUNED UP TO HUNT FOR EXPLORER

CALDWELL, N. J., Dec. 2.—

(UP)—Mechanics tuned up a fast, long-ranged, low-winger monoplane today for a dash to Antarctica where it will search for Lincoln Ellsworth, the missing explorer.

The plane was flown here yesterday from Roosevelt field, by Russell W. Thaw, transport pilot in whose name the all-metal Northrup monoplane is registered.

Thaw refused to discuss the projected flight, but it is understood he will fly the ship to the Northrup plant at Santa Monica, Calif., where it will be fitted with skis for use in the Antarctic. He will then fly to the southernmost tip of South America where he will deliver the machine to the Ellsworth expedition.

Associates of Ellsworth in this country were believed to have chartered the plane in hopes of rescuing the flying scientist who has been missing nine days.

BODIES IDENTIFIED AS MEXICAN WOMEN

TIJUANA, Mex., Dec. 2.—(UP)—

Medical experts said today they believe the bodies found near the adobe of Rosarita Beach near Tijuana were those of two Mexican women, and not those of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompson, wealthy Alaskans who disappeared Dec. 5, 1932.

Thompson was owner of a fur business in Fairbanks and had purchased a distillery here. The couple has not been seen since starting back from a trip to Los Angeles.

Condition of the skeletons made positive identification difficult, but investigators said they had been buried too long to be those of the Thompsons.

SANTA ANA MERCHANTS READY FOR BIG YULE BUSINESS

Anticipations of local merchants that this year would see the greatest Christmas business in the history of the city were well-founded, it was learned today from local merchants, who reported that already there are definite indications of better business than last year or other past years.

The Christmas merchandising season has started early and earnestly this year, merchants said, and stocks of local stores are greater and more attractive than ever before. Hundreds will get extra work in stores this holiday season.

Hugh J. Lowe, local clothier, reported earlier and greater shopping this year than last year. He said he anticipates a real holiday business this year, and has many new things to offer, including all types of clothing for men. Even the purchase of shirts can be different this year, he said, because of the new styles which are attractive and unique. Many extra clerks have been hired to take care of the increased business.

Swanberger's Store for Men, through Walter Swanberger, reported indications of around a 30 per cent increase in business over last Christmas, basing the estimate on November business, which was more than 25 per cent greater than last November. Swanberger said he has about a 50 per cent greater stock this year than last year, featuring clothing and fashion goods. More attractive merchandise is being shown this year than in any other year, he said, and Christmas shopping is early and greater than in the past.

Greater Volume
Rankin's Dry Goods store reported expectations of a considerably greater volume of business this year than last year. Herbert P. Rankin said the store last year enjoyed a fine response during the holiday season, and that indications are that business will be even better this year. The store, he said, has prepared for the holiday season by stocking attractive gifts in every department.

C. B. Steele of Steele's Shop for Women, said that shoppers are buying practical gifts this year, especially dresses for holiday occasions. Business is exceptionally good this year, he said.

J. B. Mattingly of Mattingly's Shop for Women said interest shown by shoppers indicates a sets, leather bags, etc., he said. The Christmas business at the Peggy Shop has started out auspiciously, according to Mrs. Jack Schlossberg, manager. Dresses, coats, robes and other attractive feminine apparel is finding favor with Christmas shoppers, she said.

F. A. Jones of the Penney store said that business is far ahead of last year and that stocks of merchandise are larger.

Fine Spirit Evident
J. B. Hill, of Hill and Carden's, men's clothing store, anticipates a good Christmas business, saying that business is better than for several Christmas seasons. More Christmas spirit is in evidence, he said. The store, since it moved, has been able to carry a greater stock of clothing because of the increased space, making possible a greater selection for the shopper.

The store, Hill said, is prepared now after several months of preparation, to take care of the anticipated increased business. Newell Vandermast, of Vandermast Inc., clothing store, reported that shoppers are doing their work early this year, and that because the month of November was so far ahead of past months, it indicates a great merchandising season. He said that shoppers this year are buying larger items, such as suits and topcoats, although the smaller accessories are making attractive gifts for many shoppers.

Sam Hurwitz, local clothing dealer, said Santa Ana stores have the most complete stocks in the Southland, showing all the new styles. This should mean localization of business with no need on the part of shoppers to leave town to do their buying, he said.

"I feel optimistic concerning Christmas business," John C. Turner, manager of Brooks clothing store, said. "Inasmuch as there is a definite turn for the better throughout the country, I feel that the reaction will be felt in our Christmas business. We are prepared with an exceptionally fine and large stock of Christmas merchandise to meet the demand we are certain will come."

Local Briefs

The maximum temperature recorded Saturday at the Santa Ana Junior college meteorological station, according to Observer C. G. Blanchard, was 78 at 2 p. m., with the minimum being 46 at 5:30 a. m. Relative humidity was 27.5 per cent and the average wind velocity was 1.69 m.p.h.

A building permit was granted V. J. Anderson today to construct a 12x22 addition to the Russell Plumbing company building at 921 South Main street. The valuation was set at $1200.

The fire department was called to the home of J. L. McFadden, 2344 Oakmont, at 5:57 p. m. Sunday to extinguish a fire believed to have been started by a faulty fuse. A vine, climbing along the chimney brickwork, caught fire and threatened the house. No damage was reported.

Miss Molly Maloney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan E. Maloney, 930 South Broadway, underwent an operation for appendicitis this morning at St. Joseph hospital.

Original name for the Hawaiian Islands was the Sandwich Islands.

NINE BICYCLES ARE STOLEN OVER WEEKEND

Bicycle thieves made a descent upon Santa Ana over the weekend when nine bicycles were reported stolen, principally from the vicinity of Fourth and Birch streets, adjacent to Walker's state theater. City police officers declared they were investigating the angle that all of the cycles were stolen by the same person or persons.

Apparently carrier boys, attending the Saturday matinee at the show, were the chief losers. Among these reporting their wheels stolen were Earl Prumet, 407 East Hobart; Richard Kessler, 815 South Sycamore, and Jimmie Carrillo, 1429 West Third. Kessler's and Carrillo's "bikes" were recovered by Gene Short, 1009 West Sixth, who found them Sunday morning at 1215 South Fairview.

Other victims were Robert Pierce, 112 West Santa Clara; Mickey Snee, 502 West First; Harold Short, 1909 West Sixth; Richard Towle, D street, Tustin, and John Wiedeman, 706 West Third. All of the bicycles were stolen from Fourth and Birch, except those of Towle and Prumet, which were taken near the Broadway theater, and Wiedeman's, which was stolen from his home.

City Officers Neer and Wolford investigated the report by Robert B. Gould that a dark man who loitered at the Remington Rand Incorporated headquarters, 415 North Sycamore, Saturday, had disappeared with a $49.50 typewriter. He disappeared through a rear door while the proprietors were busy at the front.

Is It Lucky? Finds Bag of Rabbit Food

Mrs. Vail Crawford, 2008 South Van Ness, wasn't lucky enough to find a rabbit's foot Saturday evening at First and Broadway, but she did inform city police that she would like to locate the owner of a sack of rabbit's food which she found at that location. She's holding it for the owner or some friendly rabbit that might stray through the neighborhood, she said.

avenue, Long Beach, lost his shirt, literally, he informed police, while downtown shopping Saturday night. He left the car door unlocked and a thief made off with a shirt and tie both of which were in the car.

A "rocket" apparently was worked on James Doyle, 111 East Pine avenue, Sunday afternoon, when he lost $15 to a man who pawned a watch with him at his service station, Washington and Main. The man told Doyle he needed the $15 to post as bail to get a friend out of jail. The man never returned.

SENTENCED AGAIN FOR DRUNK DRIVING

But recently out of the county jail where he had been confined on the charge of drunk driving, John R. Hickey, 33, of Anaheim, was in again today on the same charge.

Judge Frank Tausch of the Anaheim city court, sentenced Hickey to 90 days in county jail. Hickey had been out of jail but three weeks.

HIGHWAY CAFE ROBBED; LOOT VAULTED AT $700

Breaking into the Armstrong cafe on the 101 highway north of the county hospital, thieves stole $700 worth of food, liquors, silverware and punchboard prizes Sunday morning between 2:30 and 6:30 a.m., Joe Armstrong told the sheriff's office today.

Investigation revealed that the thieves used a knife to effect entrance, cutting through a screen door and releasing the lock of the frame door. The loot included a crate of eggs, 15 pounds of butter, 10 pounds of coffee, five pounds of cheese, silverware, liquors, two rifles, two lighters, alarm clock, carving set, lamp, sandwich toaster and dishes.

A. H. Davis, of Ocean avenue, near 101 highway, Brea, reported to the sheriff's office the theft of several chickens yesterday. A dog which killed 18 chickens and injured five others on the "Dad" Phillips ranch, Buena Park, was dispatched, according to sheriff's office reports.

MARRIAGE LICENSES EXCEED LAST YEAR

November marriage licenses exceeded the total for November, 1934, by 61. It was shown today when County Clerk J. M. Backs reported a total of 368 licenses for last month, as compared to 301 for the preceding November.

Receipts At Post Office Show Gains

Continuing a steady gain throughout the year, Santa Ana postoffice receipts for the first 11 months of 1935 show a gain of $10,243.26 over a corresponding period for 1934.

Receipts for the past month totaled $13,779.58, a gain of $2,235.72 over November, 1934, which totaled $11,543.66. November receipts for this year showed a loss of $223.01, as compared with October, which can be accounted for by the October election mailings, according to Assistant Postmaster Flake Smith.

The 11-month total for this year is $142,981.74, as compared with a total of $132,738.48 for the first 11 months of 1934.

OPPONENTS OF WATER BONDS OPEN OFFICES

For the purpose of waging a vigorous campaign against the $6,620,000 water bond issue, on which the voters of Orange county will go to the polls on December 19, the Associated Water Users of Orange county today opened offices at 421 North Sycamore street, in the Ramona building.

J. C. Metzgar, well known campaigner has charge of the fight to be made against the passage of the bonds. He announced today that he would name the committee which will be in charge of the fight, probably tomorrow.

Names of prominent men will adorn the committee list, some of the best known citizens in the county taking a stand against the passage of the bonds, according to Metzgar.

The opposition to the bonds is completing its organization work today, with several meetings in progress, the outcome of which will be the announcement of the committee heads and methods to be used to promoting a whirlwind campaign to defeat the bonds.

This is the same organization which successfully defeated the bonds on October 4, with the addition of a large number of prominent people who remained silent before, but who now believe, according to Metzgar that there is less reason to pass the bond issue before and therefore will take an active part in the campaign.

Two Places In Orange Robbed

Burglars raided two places of business in Orange last night, failing to secure any loot in one but making off with numerous tools at the other.

The packing plant of the American Fruit Growers Inc. on West Chapman was visited by an intruder, who broke a window to gain entrance. According to a police report, nothing of value was taken.

At the repair shop of Thomas W. Dilley at Orana, both carpenter and watchmakers' tools were taken. A shot gun was included in the loot taken by the thief, who gained entrance by breaking a hasp on a door.

AGED WOMAN BADLY BURNED STARTING FIRE EARLY TODAY

Mrs. Ahna R. Aislanian, aged mother of Mrs. C. J. Lyons of Route 1, box 63, Buena Park, was burned badly at the breakfast hour this morning when her dress caught fire while she was building a fire at her home in the rear of the Lyons home. An emergency run to her home was made by the sheriff's office.

Mrs. Aislanian, 80 years old, rushed into the yard, where her daughter and friends helped extinguish the blazing gown. The victim was taken to the California hospital in Los Angeles by the Backs, Terry and Campbell ambulance of Anaheim. Her condition was serious. The Lyons place is located on Miller road, one-fourth mile south of Orangethorpe.

BRUINS SHARE COAST CONFERENCE CROWN

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2.—(UP)—Although U. C. L. A. still must face St. Mary's Dec. 14, the Bruins today shared the Pacific Coast football conference championship after downing an aggressive Idaho team, 13 to 6, over the weekend.

The Bruins, California and Stanford shared the conference title with four wins and one defeat

MISS WHITNEY MAKES REGULAR FEE STATEMENT

County Recorder Justine Whitney today made her settlement with the county auditor for fees of her office received during November, her affidavit showing a total settlement of $2782.55.

Failure to make such monthly settlement by the fifth of the month on 16 different occasions since July, 1933, was the alleged cause of an indictment voted by the county grand jury last week. Miss Whitney is scheduled to answer to the indictment before Judge James L. Allen on Friday, December 13.

While the grand jury turned today to other matters, including the rumored voting of secret indictments against two fugitive criminals wanted here, having previously voted indictments against R. P. Osborne and M. R. McKinstry, held in a Florida jail on local hunkie charges, local official circles took note of a grand jury investigation in Amador county which bore resemblance to the local situation.

Judge A. Caminetti Jr., of Amador county, who recently presided over superior court department three here for several weeks, sent a copy of a Jackson newspaper here, showing a grand jury report charging that the Amador county recorder had twice failed to make a settlement of fees within the prescribed period.

The fees for November, 1932, were not turned in until April 4, 1933, and the fees for February, 1933, were not accounted for until June, 1934, the grand jury report said. The report said that "the audit was at fault for not reporting the board (of supervisors) and should not have delivered the recorder's salary warrant until the recorder had complied with the law. No indictment was voted.

DARING NEEDED TO CHALLENGE PUBLIC WRONG

about them. But these men were not the kind to keep quiet.

Dared to Speak

"After the Sanhedrin had threatened them and bade them not to preach any more, these two disciples had the audacity to say, 'Whether it is right in the sight of God to hearken unto you rather than unto God, judge ye: for we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.'"

"This was a very amazing attitude to these dignified officials. The record tells us that they 'marveled at the boldness of Peter and John,' especially, when they 'perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men.'"

"One thing that caused their amazement was the changed conduct on the part of these men since the crucifixion of their Lord, just a few weeks before. Peter was anything but noted for his boldness on the night that his Lord was on trial. You rather think of John as a man of gentle and loving words. But a great change had come over them."

"Then, too, their poor mental equipment had taken on a strange power that gripped the hearts and minds of the people, which these finished scholars did not possess. Their daring to hurl defiance into the face of the intellectual agnosticism, and the gross materialism, and the dead formalism of their own church, made these men puzzling to these officials. They dared to wake up these sleepers, if it did mean going to jail."

Voice Conviction

"It takes just this kind of holy daring to bring about the correction of the evils of our social, political and religious world today. It takes men and women who not only have convictions, but who are not afraid to voice them. Of course, we are not talking of a certain sort of fanaticism which

"There was anything but a dull time in Jerusalem during the preaching of those first disciples. This text is the reply that Peter and John made to the officers who had them locked up for disturbing the peace. These high dignitaries wanted their city to remain quiet and free from any disturbances with new ideas. And, so, they had them arrested and brought into court."

"It was the same complaint that was made against Martin Luther, John Knox and John Wesley, and other heroes that undertook to improve conditions. Convictions are not so bad if nothing is said

IT'S TRUE!

CLARK GABLE

WAS BORN IN BRIDGE, OHIO, AMONG OTHER THINGS HE HAS WORKED AS A LUMBERMAN, A SURVEYOR, AND AS A TELEPHONE MAN.

CLARK GABLE FIRST ATTRACTED ATTENTION WHEN HE PLAYED SEAGANT QUINN IN THE STAGE DRAMA, 'WHAT PRICE GLORY'.

THIRTY YEARS AFTER HE GRADUATED FROM COLLEGE, CLARK GABLE WAS APPEARING ON BROADCASTING WITH KATHARINE CORNELL.

AFTER TWO YEARS OF RESEARCH, AIDED BY THE BRITISH ADMIRALTY, THE ORIGINAL 'BOUNTY' HAS BEEN REPRODUCED IN DETAIL BY M.G.M. AND IS SAILING THE PACIFIC AGAIN!

THE SAME LONDON FIRM WHICH TAILORED CAPTAIN BUCHANAN'S UNIFORMS 150 YEARS AGO, MADE DUPLICATES OF THE ORIGINALS FOR CHARLES LAUGHTON TO WEAR IN THE ROLE OF CAPTAIN BUCHANAN IN 'MUTINY ON THE BOUNTY'.

CHARLES LAUGHTON SERVED IN THE WORLD WAR IN ENGLAND'S 25th DIVISION, 7th NORTHAMPTONSHIRE, AND WAS GAZETTED IN BATTLE.

"IT'S TRUE! that Irving Thalberg's production, 'Mutiny on the Bounty'—the most famous mutiny in maritime history—is one of the biggest productions in film history," says artist Wiley Padan. "7 square-rig ships, 9 longboats, 16 cutters, 10 wherry-boats, 3 motor sailers, 3 tugs, 8 water-taxis, and 3 speedboats were used. 2500 South Sea natives were used in certain sequences!"

deals in wild exaggerations that are not based on facts. These men said 'we can but speak the things which we have seen and heard.' They were sure of their facts. But being sure of them they were not willing that they should lie dormant in their souls while the world about them stood in such need of champions who dared to speak out regardless of consequences.

"This is especially needed in these days when there are so many avenues through which we can register our convictions. This is especially true of great moral and religious causes which are crying out for outspoken advocates."

"This was the challenge which Jesus, while here on earth, gave to his own disciples when he said, 'He that denieth me before men, him will I deny before my Father who is in heaven, but he that confesseth me before men, him will I also confess before my Father which is in heaven.'"

YORBA LINDA, Dec. 2.—The annual pilgrimage of the Imperial Highway association members to Imperial valley is scheduled for December 7. The regular meeting of the association will be a dinner at the Barbara Worth hotel at 7:30 p.m. Arrangements are being made for special speakers at the meeting. Part of the weekend will be spent in Old Mexico.

REV. OWINGS HONORED ON ANNIVERSARY

The Rev. Harry Evan Owings, having completed seven years of ministry in the First Baptist church of Santa Ana, was honored by members of his congregation at the morning service yesterday.

This feature occurred at the beginning of the service when the choir entered, singing as a procession, "Blessed Be the One That Binds," with Russell Crouse singing the third verse as a solo.

Mac Robbins then presented the pastor with a beautiful basket of large, yellow chrysanthemums, and smaller, contrasting flowers; and read the following verse:

'Tis the little things you do,
In your happy hearted way,
'Tis the kindness you show
And the gracious things you say,
Your understanding friendliness—
Your cheery humor, too!
All are blended sweetly
In that little word called 'You.'

The Rev. Mr. Owings responded with remarks of appreciation.

The anniversary of the beginning of his ministry is observed each year by the church on the first Sunday in December.

SEAL PURCHASE IS INVESTMENT THAT PAYS BIG

"The purchase of Christmas Seals is a first rate investment, both from an economic as well as a health standpoint," according to A. J. Cruickshank, treasurer of the California Tuberculosis Association.

"The cost of tuberculosis in the United States totals more than a billion dollars annually. The expense of caring for tuberculosis patients is one hundred and seventy-five million dollars. Five hundred and thirty-five million dollars is lost in wages and it is estimated that the United States loses five hundred and thirty-nine million dollars due to deaths from this malady."

"Because of the expensive treatment and income lost during the long period of illness caused by tuberculosis, it is one of the most costly diseases. In 1935, for every death from the disease, it is estimated there were nine active cases."

Cost of Disease

"Under present mortality conditions, tuberculosis cuts off two and one half years from the complete expectation of life of every individual. If each individual were to add only one hundred dollars to the community wealth per year, tuberculosis would cost the community two hundred and fifty dollars per person, or the above total of five hundred and thirty-nine million dollars.

"The average care of a patient is two and one-third years and he is unable to earn for at least one year. Figuring the annual earnings of a person as one thousand dollars, the eight hundred and twenty-eight thousand tuberculosis cases would show a loss of income of eight hundred and twenty-eight million dollars added to the annual loss of five hundred and thirty-five million dollars. If all the eight hundred and twenty-eight thousand cases received sanatorium care the cost would be about four hundred and fourteen million dollars, or an annual loss of one hundred seventy-seven million dollars."

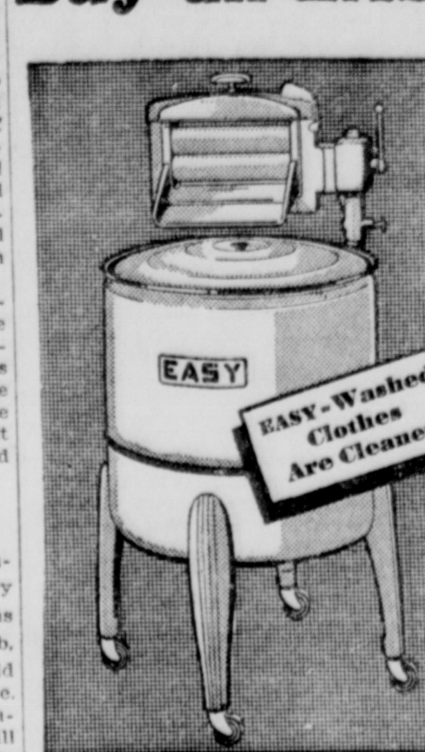

"These figures show the terrific odds that Christmas Seals are facing in the battle against tuberculosis. The payments which this disease exacts from humanity are financial as well as physical. 'We must carry on this work. We must have the cooperation of the united public during this Seal Sale.'"

Assembly

An upper division assembly was held Friday, when the sixth grade of Jefferson, in observance of Book week, presented a skit built about some of the poems of Robert Louis Stevenson. They were directed by Miss Nell Chapman. The Boys' Glee club, under the direction of Miss Davis, sang three selections, "Home on the Range," "Go Down Moses" and "Mandalay." Two talks were given, "On the Set at Hollywood" by Lola Marie Harmon; and "A Glimpse of Hollywood's Great" by Harriet Spicer. Mr. Hicks provided the microphone. Sam Teel and John Ramirez gave a demonstration on liquid air.

Science Class

The L9-O social science class heard a talk given recently by Terry Stephenson former postmaster and authority on the early history of Orange county and Santa Ana, according to Miss M. J. Teel, instructor.

News Notes

Harry Rellstab has been appointed to the safety committee. Lulu Rimal and Lila Adrian, home room representatives, have been given hall duty. Orville Grochow broke his leg recently in P. E. The Senior Girls' Glee club members made their first appearance in new uniforms at a recent assembly. New locks have been put on 50 of the lockers in the east hall.

Class Visits Museum

The low seven D and G science classes, accompanied by Marian Scott, made a trip to the Bay Island museum recently. Mr. Aldrich, of the museum, discussed the different objects. On the ceiling there were some 2000 abalone shells. There were cases filled with skulls, some of which were taken from settlers' graves and some from Indian mounds.

One of the most interesting objects was a tiny baby octopus, which was so small that it had to be put on a white background.

STORIES IN STAMPS

By I. S. Klein

MUD SKIPPER of LIBERIA

GO fishing in the dank waters of Liberia, and you'll very likely get scared out of your wits, if you are not prepared for the strange "mud-skipper" that inhabits the waters of this part of Africa. It's a fish, all right, but it can get up out of the water and skip along over the mud and wet sands as agile as a lizard.

The peculiar fish can be found in other parts of the world, Asia especially. It is classed with the goby, its eyes are raised, its fins strong, and its body built like an airplane fuselage. It can skim over the surface of the water with great speed, and chases its prey of insects among rocks, leaves, and weeds. Place the mud-skipper in clear water, and it will drown!

The stamp showing this strange fish was issued by Liberia in 1918, as one of a series portraying the country's natural resources.

SEAL BEACH WATER WORK STARTS SOON

SEAL BEACH, Dec. 2.—Work on the new municipal water system is expected to get under way soon the federal government having approved a grant for the system.

The sewage treatment plant is under construction at the present time and as soon as the forms for bids are received from P. W. A. officials, bids will be requested for the jetty at the mouth of Anaheim bay. The grant for the water system was turned down by the government at first because the request contained the price of the waterbearing land. With this eliminated another request was presented and has been granted for approximately 45 per cent of the cost of the project.

Bonds for the water system were voted in the sum of $30,000. The land has been bought from the Hellman estate and the papers are now in escrow.

PENNEY STORE PREPARES FOR HOLIDAY RUSH

The task of selecting and preparing Christmas merchandise for a nation-wide organization like the J. C. Penney company with about 1500 stores located in every state of the union is quite a problem, according to F. A. Jones, local Penney manager.

"However," he said, "33 years in business has taught us many things about the business, best of all, how to please our host of customers at the Yuletide season."

LADY NEARLY CHOKED WHILE LYING IN BED

One lady said a few days ago that she used to be afraid to go to bed at night. She was swollen with stomach gas, which always got worse when she went to bed and the gas would rise up in her throat after she laid down and would nearly choke her. She couldn't lie flat. Had to prop herself up on pillows. Recently, this lady got MOSBY'S TABLETS and now says gas is gone, stomach feels fine, bowels are regular and she can go to bed and sleep soundly.

BENEFITS IN 12 HOURS
MOSBY'S TABLETS neutralize acids in the stomach and bowels, expel gas, relieve pain, bloating, indigestion. They give the bowels and intestines a GREAT CLEANSING and bring out the foul, acidous filth that causes headaches, skin eruptions, foul breath, coated tongue, thick, bad taste and worn out feeling. Benefits come OVER NIGHT. Weak, miserable people often feel like different men and women in 12 HOURS' TIME!

COSTS ONE CENT A DAY
MOSBY'S TABLETS cost little more than one cent a day. So don't go on suffering. Get Mosby's Tablets—TODAY—at McCoy's Drug Stores, 104 East Fourth and 302 West Fourth. Also sold by McCoy's Drug Stores in Whittier, Balboa and Huntington Beach, and by all good druggists.—Adv.

PENNEY STORE WELCOMES SANTA CLAUS

Manager F. A. Jones of the J. C. Penney store and Santa Claus are shown below with the group of employees of the store who are prepared to take care of needs of shoppers for the Christmas season. Preparations have been completed at the store for the biggest Christmas business in the history of the store.

Immediately after every Christmas, questionnaires from New York central offices, including merchandising and buying departments, are answered telling them how we could improve upon our efforts to better serve our trade.

"Not alone are the ideas from all the managers analyzed, but from the thousands of employees from all the stores. When all of this data is carefully gone over, the buyers get busy with manufacturers correcting this and improving upon that and then the wheels of the great factories get busy manufacturing toys and other goods far in advance of the next Christmas season, taking advantage of the factory's dull season in order to produce well-made merchandise. This is not only advantageous to the Penney company but it helps manufacturers to maintain their skilled craftsmen the year around." Jones said that from all indi-

TO ENTERTAIN AT WARD STORE

Hosmer's Hawaiian orchestra will provide entertainment for shoppers at the Montgomery Ward store here tomorrow night on the occasion of the official Christmas opening. The doors will be thrown open at 7 o'clock for a preview of a great array of toys, gifts goods and merchandise for every member of the family, of outstanding quality and price, according to store officials.

cations his company would have the biggest Christmas business in its history and that his store is fully prepared to do its share. The only possible handicap, he said, would be failure to get a few shipments of toys now held up at the Wilmington docks due to strike conditions. However, he said, his present stock is double that of any previous year. He advised early shopping for toys this year.

A novelty display and entertainment is planned for tomorrow night by the Penney store with Santa Claus as "head man" in the show following the parade and opening events tomorrow night when the Christmas season is launched here.

HONOR COUPLE AT BEACH RECEPTION

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Dec. 2.—The reception at the First Christian church Sunday afternoon, which was tendered to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McClung observing their sixtieth wedding anniversary, was attended by several hundred friends of the popular couple, with many out of town guests present. Mr. and Mrs. McClung were showered with gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Ball, of Santa Ana, brought from the Bowers museum in Santa Ana, an album which Mr. and Mrs. McClung signed. The album contains the names of married couples who have lived together 50 years or longer at the time of signing. "There are two couples in the Christian church who have been married 60 years. Mr. and Mrs. J. Purcell, who celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary last year, were at the McClung reception.

CHURCH EDITOR WILL SPEAK AT S. A. MEETINGS

Dr. Henry Clay Morrison, editor of the Pentecostal Herald, President of Asbury college, and one of the general evangelists of the M. E. church, South, will preach at a series of daily services in Spurgeon Methodist church of Santa Ana, starting tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. Morrison will preach twice daily for the ensuing 12 days, at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. His closing sermon will be delivered Sunday evening, December 15.

Dr. Cecil M. Aker, pastor of the church, has announced that the following church departments will have charge of "Getting-out-the-congregation" to the meetings during the current week.

Tuesday night—the entire Sunday school, together with officers and teachers.

Wednesday night — Missionary women, all women of the church are asked to attend this service especially.

Thursday night — "Laymen's night," sponsored by the Brotherhood of the church, and the board of Stewards, which is the board of lay activities of the church.

Friday night will be Young People's night. All high school and junior college students, as well as the young people of the church, are especially invited.

Further announcements will be made later regarding the meetings for the following week.

Christian Science

The Christian Science lesson-sermon yesterday at the Santa Ana First Church of Christ, Scientist, denounced ancient and modern necromancy alias mesmerism and hypnotism.

The lesson-sermon presented these Bible selections from Revelation: "And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. . . . And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world. . . . And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night."

Among the correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, were these words, "The Revelator lifts the veil from this embodiment of all evil, and beholds its awful character; but he also sees the nothingness of evil and the aliveness of God."

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

— News Behind the News —

Copyright, 1935, By Paul Mallon

FUTURE—
WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Best business seems here feel reasonably certain the current general improvement will continue through December. They are doing no guessing beyond that. What they will not say, but seem to sense, is that a moderate readjustment is likely after the turn of the year. But all their trusted harbingers of 1936 suggest there is no logical way for business to go into 1936 but up. For instance, the new force behind the current uplift is the improvement in the heavy goods (iron, steel, metals, lumber, glass, the things which go into machinery, building, furniture, automobiles).

This improvement can be traced broadly to new general bestirring of demand for that type of goods. Two opposite lines of it are notable, automobiles and residential building. Autos may be reaching near a new year peak, but building certainly is not. It is still so low that its major influence on general business uplift is certainly all ahead of it.

CONFIDENCE—

If you will trace these two examples to the full depth of their roots, you will find that both spring from increasing confidence. Purchasers of homes and autos are sufficiently confident of their existing income to create a stronger buying demand. Builders of homes and autos see a prospect of profit, are becoming more confident in planning their production. This tendency has been noted in autos before, but not until comparatively recently in building or in other corresponding heavy lines (machine tools, agricultural implements, cash registers).

This buying and profit confidence is not yet solidly normal. The only thing which might reasonably be expected to hinder its growth next year, however, would be something nationally depressing. A lot of such possibilities exist, but they have been generally recognized, Townsend movement). No one seems to be much excited about them. At least, the growth of confidence has been accomplished in the face of them.

CHART—

A balanced view of the way things are going now may be gained from the monthly business chart used by government officials and economists. It shows a continuous improvement in all lines since May, as follows:

(Note—Each figure is seasonally adjusted and represents the percentage of normal activity existing at the times stated. Normal is 100 based on the averages for the three years 1923-25.)

EMPLOYMENT

The growth of employment and payrolls in the heavy goods industries lately is a significant step, because that is where the bulk of unemployment lies.

Miss Perkins' bureau of labor statistics has figures indicating that employment in durable goods averaged about 75 per cent this October and about 63 per cent a year ago; payrolls about 68 this October, compared with 46 last year.

The non-durables show 96.4 per cent employment this October, as compared with 95 last October. Their payrolls were 86.2 this October, as compared with 79.6 last year.

The purchasing power improvement of the last year has therefore been mainly in durables. There is plenty of room left for improvement in that line.

RAILS

Some economists have a reasonable new theory that the railroads will come back also when the durables recover fully. The basis of this theory is that the durable goods are not carried by truck, bus and airplane. Only the railroads haul the bulk of steel, iron, lumber, etc.

The theory seems to be beginning to work out slightly. At least the recent improvement in car loadings is attributable partly to increased production and partly to the increased movement of agricultural goods.

The railroads lost money until September. Their nine-month loss was double that of a year ago. But in September they made a profit, which is going to be increased in October.

An interesting thing about the stock market rise is that it has been accomplished without any corresponding increase in general prices. The most recent private computation indicates that stock market prices are up about 38 per cent since last March. The index of wholesale prices is almost the same as last March; they are up exactly nine-tenths of one point. The only change in industrial prices lately has been toward firming.

If inflation has anything to do with general prices, there would seem to be little of it in the existing situation; at least little has been added since March.

WASHINGTON
By Ray Tucker

BOLD

State Departmenters publicly plash the seriousness of Geneva's postponement of the oil blockade against Italy but it is a cruel disappointment to peace-loving Cordell Hull. The incident will furnish Senate isolationists with destructive ammunition when Congress overhauls the neutrality laws next February.

Mr. Hull has no other choice—he is backtracking by rushing forward. Before the rift his moves were timed to stiffen League members into strong measures against Il Duce. But now he protests that the United States has nothing in common with Geneva in the Italo-Ethiopian dispute. He emphasizes the difference between this country's embargo against both belligerents and Europe's punishment of Italy alone.

Behind all official statements you can discern a desperate effort to divorce Washington and Geneva. But many legislators don't accept the official explanation. They maintain that Mr. Hull exceeded his authority when he threatened reprisals against exporters of raw materials to Rome. They insist Congress deliberately withheld this power from the White House because it couldn't trust our 1917-1918 allies to stay put.

ROSY

The government's economic doctors are hovering over the present boomlet as if it were a sick infant. Three times since 1933's low have they sat hopefully by the bedside of the recovery patient but always their charts took a downward turn after a few months.

Now the diagnosticians think they detect symptoms of real health. Improvement is almost all lines—retail and wholesale, industrial and agricultural—has lasted for nearly a year. Residential construction is responding to Washington's pulmotors and stimulating the heavy industries. WPA purchasing power will approach its week soon. People are buying autos despite the shift in the season for new models, though they aren't flocking to the showrooms as feverishly as auto magnets had hoped.

The statisticians note two factors that were absent from previous upturns. The economic machine is in better balance all along the line. Production and consumption are approaching a level. The folks have enough confidence to buy things they couldn't or wouldn't in other years—household furniture, clothing, luxury goods. They are thronging theaters, movies, hotels, restaurants, night clubs. They seem to feel it's time to snap out of the blues.

SPEED

The air-minded at Washington are praying that the army's recent stratospheric experiments will induce Congress to set aside a million dollars for serious exploration of heavenly flying fields. They have inaugurated a quiet campaign to place the United States in the lead in this promised land of the air.

Feeble trials indicate that planes which make only 180 miles an hour at ordinary altitudes—4000 feet—will do 400 miles an hour 30,000 feet up. It would revolutionize civil and military flying. Other nations are getting ready to steal a march on the U. S.

Dan Roper is trying to sell the idea to the White House. The prospect is known to appeal to the President, who likes speed in any form, but whether this request for new funds will get by the budget-balancers is another question. Mr. Roosevelt knows he must be re-elected on the ground.

METHOD

Townsendites are quietly boasting that they have effected a union with erstwhile Anti-Saloon League promoters who find time heavy on their hands under repeal. And the white-ribboners have sense of humor enough to revel in this method of striking back at the President who authored the return of liquor.

The California doctor is making headway too with the young folks as well as with the 65-year-olders who would be eligible for a 1200-a-month pension under his scheme. He may be reversing the system under which the young and able-bodied support their aged parents.

Reports reaching Townsend headquarters at Washington say the sons and daughters see profit for themselves in the pension plan. Since they can't get work, the youngsters envisage a day when they will live off the old folks. It's a political argument which may mobilize many unexpected recruits at the next session of Congress.

DEFINITION

The Democratic high command shrinks at mention of one word in the GOP's political vocabulary: "boondoggling." The Farleyites fear that it may swing millions of votes to the Republicans unless Rooseveltian publicists can give it another meaning in the public mind.

Messrs. Farley and Michelson weep at the way Harry Hopkins attacked when it was first made. They don't think he has squared the record in any of his belated efforts to justify this form of public spending. They maintain that a proper, political explanation of the need for relief projects for those who can't dig ditches or operate tractors would set things straight with the people.

From now on Publicist Michelson will stir up sympathy for barbers, manicurists, tap-dancers and writers receiving relief pay from the government. He has begun a canvass of the kind of "boondoggling" sponsored by Mr. Hopkins. GHQ will publicize the idea that man's a man for at that, even though he is a "boondogler."

NOTES

Will Roosevelt have to hold a spendthrift Congress back? This question is looming up along

COACH BILL FOOTE MAKES THE GRADE ON HIS OWN

Bill Foote goes back to the golf course this winter secure in the satisfaction he has achieved in his career.

The coach of Santa Ana high school's football club definitely proved that, given a fair shake in material, he can trade punches and fear not the exchange.

His 1935 Santa Ana team did not measure up to the super-powerful groups molded by "Tex" Oliver in 1931 and 1932, but they were as deft and skillful as any of Oliver's teams before '32, better by far than anything Foote handled since Oliver's departure.

The best part is that Bill made the grade on his own.

For two years he tried to follow Oliver's shadow, pursue his popular professor's pattern. This season Foote went all the way for the change in football expression. The Saints of '35 used in general the Notre Dame shift, but toward the end of the season the shift was about all that was recognizable. Against San Diego and Pomona in the last two games, Foote came up with a sharp, crisp, fast-breaking attack as significant as it was novel and daring.

The retrospect is entertaining. The Saints started nine times, won from Orange, Muir Tech, Santa Barbara, Alhambra, Fullerton and Pomona. They lost to Inglewood, 7-2, after making a touchdown that was disallowed; to Long Beach, 32-6 when they folded up in front of vastly superior opposition, and to San Diego, 10-7, in the last 55 seconds.

This was stubborn competition. Two of the victims, Muir Tech and Santa Barbara, are in the Southern California prep playoffs. Pomona barely missed the Citrus Belt championship. Long Beach is so much the best high school in Southern California it won't even try for the empty honor.

Against this combined resistance,

Former Champions Seek To Overthrow Ewert

Three former champions were left among the survivors in the Santa Ana Country club's championship golf tournament which went into the quarter-final today. But last week's round saw the elimination of one ex-champion and the runners-up in the last two tournaments.

Dick Ewert, defending titlist continued to dominate the annual competition with a smashing victory over A. W. Robinson, 6 and 4. Robinson finished second to Eddie Holmes in 1933.

Seeking to regain the crown he has worn six times, Holmes ousted B. R. Manker, 4 and 3. Holmes' next opponent is W. W. (Bill) Foote, the Santa football coach. The winner will meet either Ewert or B. V. Curry.

F. E. (Ed) Farnsworth, who defeated R. E. Hostetler in the third former champion still going strong. He meets Ray Chapman this week. The winner will take on either Milt Johnson, conqueror of Ward Akley, or Harold Wright, who won from J. K. McDonald, 1934 runner-up to Dick Ewert.

Pairings and results: Championship Flight: Dick Ewert (defeated A. W. Robinson, 6 and 4) vs. B. V. Curry (d. C. R. Furr, 2 and 1); W. W. Foote (d. L. W. Bemis, one up) vs. Ed Holmes Jr. (d. B. R. Manker, 4 and 3); F. E. Farnsworth (d. Ross Hostetler, 6 and 4) vs. R. E. Hostetler.

HOLLOWAY HURLS 27 SCORELESS INNINGS

Pitcher Paul Holloway today had an unfinished run of 26 consecutive scoreless innings after hurling Brea's ball club to a 7-0 shutout over Petrol Gas of Garden Grove yesterday. Peterson turned in a better game than the score indicates as Garden Grove's four errors were all of a costly nature. Hatfield and Boissiere led Brea's swatting.

CLUB FRAY OPENS HEAVY WEEK FOR COLLEGE GAGEMEN

A busy week for Santa Ana junior college's basketball team is inaugurated tonight when Coach Al Rebohn's cagers go to Orange to engage Vic Baden's Concordia Athletic club at 7:30.

Wednesday evening the Dons play another practice affair in the high school gym when they meet the strong Scottie's Maltis five, first-half champion of the Commercial league. The second and third teams go to Tustin Thursday to play Coach Bill Cole's prep hoopers in another after-dinner engagement.

Tonight's game will be the second meeting between the Concordians and Dons. Two weeks ago the clubmen decided the collegians, 33-32. Since then Rebohn's group has come a long way and indications point to a closer battle.

Six men have shown themselves as standouts in practice, probably will be used the most against the Concordians, Rebohn plans to start Tom, Leroy and Clarence Riggs, forward; Bob Browning, center; Johnny Henry and Len Lockhart, or John Jennison, guards.

With the closing of the football season, Rebohn expects at least five more outstanding candidates. Fred Erdhaus, letterman center, and Bruce Harnois, reserve forward, are looked for along with Harry Stanley and Boy Spray, former Tustin cagers, and Bill Greshner, ex-Newport player.

'BOOL' MONTANA REFEREES BIG BOUT TONIGHT

"Bull" Montana, famed former movie character star, today was named by Acting Chief Inspector Bill Smith of the state athletic commission, as the referee for tonight's championship wrestling match at the Orange County Athletic club between Vincent Lopez and the giant challenger, "Wee Willie" Davis.

The selection of Montana as the third man in the ring routed rumors that it was "in the bag" for Davis to get the breaks as his opponents charged he did after his two matches here with Referee Dick Rutherford, when Davis snatched over the winning fall on Casey Kazanjian and all but put Sander Szabo out of the running by applying undue pressure to a knee lock after Szabo had signalled defeat.

It is known that Montana will not stand for unnecessary roughness, although the "Boo" tolerates a certain amount of illegal work rather than stop a match and disappoint the fans.

For the first time since he has been knocking over opposition at the Orange County Athletic club, Davis, a notorious bad man, will be up against a chap who can and will mix a bit of boxing with his grappling.

The champion's pet offensive weapon, the "elbow punch" brought him the recognized world title and victories over 58 leading heavyweights from various countries in Lou Daro's international tourney at Los Angeles.

Lopez beat such men as Ed Lewis, Sander Szabo, "Man Mountain" Dean, Eddie Dusek, Nick Lutze, George Zaharias and others with his pet "finisher." Danno O'Mahoney, the Irishman, ran out of the tourney rather than meet the competition. Lopez, it is reported, will go to New York soon to tackle O'Mahoney at Madison Square Garden.

Friends of Davis claim the six-foot-four rougher plans to employ tactics used by Ed Lewis, which call for an aggressive, punishing offensive without attempting to clamp on a pinning hold until certain his opponent has weakened.

"I'll twist this guy Lopez into so many knots that he'll be months before he'll be able to untangle himself," said Davis. "His elbow punch can't match my strength and punishing holds."

Lopez refused to enter into the controversy. "Let Davis do the talking," said Vincent. "I'll do the wrestling."

A crowd upwards of 2400 is expected to watch the match, with 1000 general admission tickets going on sale at the arena at 7:30.

A strong supporting card has been arranged. Three one-fall, 30-minute matches bring out such topnotchers as Kiman Kudo, Japanese star, vs. Nelson Davis; Casey Colombo vs. Preacher Hogue; and Milo Steinborn, former circus strong man vs. Terrible Turk Youssef.

Cook's first eleven remains intact from last year and is dominated by six members of the 1933 Southern champions and three of the '29 titlists. Harold Hylton, right tackle, is captain of the unit. Teammates who played with Hylton are George Warner, right end, and Al Kluthe, center.

Members of the '33 champs who grace the mythical club are Sammy Tucker and Loran Lukens, guards; Miles Norton, tackle; Ben Slavin, end, and Fred ("Porky") Bell and Harold Welty in the backfield at right half and fullback, respectively.

Other first team nominees are Blanchard Beatty, Coach's assistant last fall, quarter, and Hideo Higashi, left half. Higashi is now playing at San Diego State along with Slavin. Tucker is at the University of Arizona and Lukens at California. Other members of the first string have either completed their football careers or are not participating this fall.

The complete second team is Ed Adams and Al Titensor, ends; Harry Clayton and Mike Santa Cruz, tackles; Sam Griswold and John Fitz, guards, and Bruce Handy, center, on the line with Wayne Garlock, quarter; James Hall and Hickman, halves, and Lehnhardt, full.

Having played 332 out of 360 minutes of conference play, Halfback John Lehnhardt today was installed as the "iron man" of the Santa Ana Jaycee football team. Lehnhardt is followed by Al Titensor, end; Carl Benson, guard; Dick Moore, full.

COOK NAMES 3 '35 STARS TO ALL-DON SQUAD

Sophomore Walt Hickman and Freshman Al Titensor and John Lehnhardt were named today by Coach Bill Cook when he named them as members of his all-time second football team.

Last fall the Don mentor started a yearly custom when he picked for The Register 22 men, representative of the best who were Santa Ana Junior college uniforms during his seven years as coach here.

Three members of the 1929 Southern champions had to move over to make room for this fall's additions. Hal Dunham, end, was replaced by Al Titensor, whose steady playing at the right terminal made him recognized as one of the best wingmen in the league.

Walt Hickman, who received all-conference honors, takes over Franklin Van Meter's position at left half. Cook said that the injury suffered by Hickman in the Pomona game probably deprived him of a first string berth. John Lehnhardt, standout blocking back at mid-season was converted into a halfback, goes in at fullback in place of Lloyd Mandersheim.

Brea-Olinda Set For Santa Barbara Game

With Halfback Paul Ledbetter's Luis Obispo next Saturday. "trick" ankle pronounced as fit, Brea-Olinda will be able to start its first string lineup against Santa Barbara tomorrow when the two high school eleven battle at Fullerton in a Southern C. I. F. championship playoff game.

Undefeated in seven starts, Brea-Olinda represents the Orange County league. Santa Barbara, known as the Vaqueros and Dona, gets in the elimination series as a free-lance team although it lost to both Santa Ana and Long Beach during the season.

Santa Barbara will have a 10-pound weight edge per man but "Shorty" Smith's Wildcats are given an even chance for victory if the husky Brea coach can get his men into the same frame of mind they were for Anaheim last week. Ledbetter, who was forced out of the struggle with the colonists at half-time, will start, Smith announced. He added he would use the same lineup that opened against Anaheim.

SAINTS ELECT '36 LEADER AT DINNER DEC. 13

Santa Ana high school's 1935 football captain will be elected at the squad's annual banquet which this year will be held Friday night, December 13, at the Green Cafe. The Philos club, a school service organization, is to sponsor the dinner.

Lyle Moyer, Leonard Stafford, Harold Tucker, Ferris Wall and Joe Kadowaki are outstanding juniors on the team, and one of the group probably will be picked to succeed Erwin Youel, 1935 leader.

Coach G. A. ("Tex") Oliver of the University of Arizona, former Santa Ana mentor, has been extended an invitation to address the squad. Coach Bill Foote said an answer was expected from Oliver tomorrow or Wednesday.

The Saint squad went back to practice today after a week's lay-off. They complete their season at Long Beach Saturday, playing Long Beach and Alhambra in 16-minute "games" as part of a Coast league football tournament. Coach Foote said the number of letter winners will be determined by the Saints' showing in this event.

The squad will be at or near top condition for the Long Beach competition. Fullback Bill Musick was expected back in suit today after a month of leg trouble, and both tackle Bob Reid and Halfback Len Stafford also were due. Halfback Lee Brock's knee injuries may be healed too.

Only three more major games remained on the bill. Texas Christian university, undefeated until last Saturday, meets Santa Clara at Kezar stadium Saturday. St. Mary's and Oregon clash Sunday.

Dec. 14 and the season closes with the annual grand finals, the Shrine East-West game New Year's Day.

—Still thrilling to the brilliance of Washington State's 7 to 7 tie with St. Mary's, San Francisco bay region football fans awaited the final acts of the 1935 gridiron show today.

UNBEATEN S. M. ELEVEN 'GLAD' TO PLAY REDS

DALLAS, Tex., Dec. 2.—(UP)—Southern Methodist University athletic officials joyfully discarded formalities and red tape today in accepting the bid to the Rose Bowl within 10 minutes.

It took Jimmy Stewart that long to get the members of the athletic committee out of bed near midnight for a vote. They wasted no time. The vote was unanimous.

"Are we happy?" crowed Stewart, once a star on the Mustang team and now the director of athletics. No answer was needed to the rhetorical question, but he supplied one himself: "We're plenty happy."

"Al Masters, the graduate manager of athletics at Stanford, called me on the telephone and asked me if we'd play Stanford at Pasadena on New Year's Day," Stewart said.

Appreciate Honor

"I got my committee members on the phone. I asked them if we'd accept a Rose Bowl invitation. They all said yes. I called Palo Alto and told Masters that we accepted. We certainly appreciate the honor."

Madison Bell, S. M. U. coach, was no less exuberant than Stewart.

"I'm certainly glad for the boys," Bell commented. "They've worked hard and they're a good team. It's a big change for them and I'm glad Stanford is offering it to them."

One more job awaits the Methodist players before they tackle the Rose Bowl assignment. They meet Texas A. & M. at College Station next Saturday. The Aggies are in the Southwest conference cellar and, on paper at any rate, have little to offer in the way of opposition to the undefeated Mustangs.

Bell expressed confidence that with a Rose Bowl bid on file and a scintillating reputation to uphold his team would take care of the Aggies.

Campus Celebrates

Despite the midnight hour the S. M. U. campus started celebrating as soon as the invitation was received.

The invitation was a personal triumph for Bell, as well as for Bobby Wilson, Truman Spain, Bob Finley, Harry Shuford, J. C. Wetzel and other Mustang aces.

Dropped as head coach by two Southwest conference schools, Texas Christian and Texas A. & M. when he didn't turn out winning teams, he has amply vindicated himself at S. M. U.

Ray Morrison, head coach at S. M. U. for years, brought Bell here after he had tried at the other schools. He had confidence in Matty's ability and made him line coach. When Morrison resigned at the close of last season to become head coach at Vanderbilt he recommended Bell for the vacancy. Morrison gave Bell a well trained squad to work with, and Bell and the boys did the rest.

MASTERS CONFIRMS CHOICE OF MUSTANGS

PALO ALTO, Dec. 2.—(UP)—Southern Methodist University, undefeated in 11 consecutive games, will meet Stanford in the twentieth annual Rose Bowl football game in Pasadena January 1.

Alfred C. Masters, Stanford graduate manager, announced the selection after a telephone conversation with James Stewart, S.M.U. athletic director, who accepted the bid for the Texas team.

The Mustang's appearance will mark the first time in the history of the Rose Bowl series that a team west of the Mississippi river has represented the East.

The Texans won the right to the invitation Saturday with a 20 to 14 victory over Texas Christian university. T.C.U. also had been undefeated and untied.

The game will mark Stanford's third consecutive appearance in the Rose Bowl. Virtually the same team which lost 0 to 7 on a rain-soaked field in 1934 and dropped a 13 to 23 decision to Alabama will return to meet the Mustangs.

The Rose Bowl game will be S.M.U.'s second appearance in Southern California this season. They were applauded by Southern sports writers as Rose Bowl timber several weeks ago when they passed their way to a 21 to 0 victory over U.C.L.A.

SAILOR DUB BOWEN FIRST SOLIS RIVAL

Sailor Dub Bowen, lightweight ace of the U.S.S. Pensacola, signed today to meet Raoul Solis, clever Santa Ana Mexican, in the latter's first fight in more than a year, Thursday night at the Orange County Athletic club. Solis and Bowen box the semi-final to the Herrera-Grogan middleweight main event.

Thursday night Promoter Sam Sampson will inaugurate "Prize Nite" at the 101 Highway club, a new wrinkle in amateur boxing promotion.

Dick Lincoln, Golden Glove entrant from Ontario will meet Sailor Dye in a heavyweight battle; Art Arroya is to face Larry Thomas and Max Moore clashes with Al Garcia in a rematch.

Loyola made 11 first downs to Santa Clara's four and completed four passes out of 12 for 27 yards while Santa Clara made three out of 10 for the same yardage.

Pete Lubisch, fullback, plowed over from the one-yard line after Harry Acquarelli, slippery little halfback, sparked the drive into pay territory. George Ratkovich was rushed in to kick the extra point and succeeded.

It was Loyola's first victory in the last six starts when the Lions were defeated by the Redlands, San Francisco U., San Diego State, Michigan State and U. C. L. A.

ANN MORGAN TO BE SPEAKER AT COUNTY FORUM

"Americanism" will be discussed by Ann Morgan, well known lecturer, sociologist and educator, on the third program of the Orange County Forum, December 10 at 8:15 p. m. at the Fullerton High school auditorium. Mrs. Albert Lauer, of Fullerton, will act as chairman of the evening.

"Born and raised in an environment of luxury and wealth, Ann Morgan has nevertheless set out definitely to make a place for herself in the world," the announcement said. "Her early travel and education abroad have given her a cosmopolitan point of view while her interest in sociology and economics have made these her favorite studies. Before she began her collegiate studies she had the rare advantage of observing prisons, settlements and educational centers in Europe, Great Britain and the United States.

Serious Student
"This made her a serious student and won recognition for her from the leading economist and sociologist of the last generation, Dr. O. F. Boucke, before she earned her B. S. degree. Later she became a paid welfare worker in state reformatories winning the praise of Emily Morrison, Jane Addams and Anne Peterson. She has always followed Dickens example of linking a literary career with the social problems of the day, therefore her articles have been published in both England and America.

"The World war interrupted her education and she prepared herself for the United States Tank corp, being the only woman under government instruction and the first licensed operator to drive any tractor used by the United States army. She was also active in the land army and received a degree in Agricultural Education from Pennsylvania State college.
"But in the midst of her colorful life Miss Morgan has kept in touch with society, art, music and the drama so that she has a well-rounded background from which to make an intelligent analysis of this country and its needs. Miss Morgan is cousin of Ann Morgan who was a chairman of the Belgian orphan relief during the World war."

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 2.—Blond Barbara Pepper owns Hollywood's oddest piece of jewelry. It's a charm bracelet to which are attached 50 tiny gold novelties. Eddie Cantor gave her a gold rabbit's foot and Rudy Vallee a little gold megaphone. But the donors of a police badge, telephone, washboard, elephant, poodle dog, canoe, gun, knife, auto, fish pole and roller skate are her own pet secret.

No Rest For Executives
Samuel Goldwyn has added a masseur to his payroll, the gentleman's duties being to tour the offices and stars' dressing rooms in search of an executive, star, director or writer who is tired. He carries a folding table with him, and whenever he finds someone with that worn look he sets up the table right there and administers a vigorous rub-down. So far Goldwyn himself has been the best customer.

FLYING AROUND With Dale Deckert

Fourteen new students have been enrolled at the Eddie Martin School of Aviation during the past few weeks, including four of the fair sex who hope to be future Amelia Earharts. Those enrolled are Paul Simmons, Bill Knight, Orville Skidmore, William Southern, Robert Gier, Oscar Schultz, M. R. McNeil, Gene Coghlan, Carleton Pender, Jimmie Byrne and the four young ladies are Jeanette Roby, Winifred Triplett, Geraldine Williamson and Mrs. Theodore Hummel.

Twelve years ago when Eddie Martin opened his school of aviation he had as his first student and holder of diploma No. 1, Joe Skidmore of Laguna Beach. At that time Joe brought his small son Orville to the airport to watch him take his flying instructions and last week the same boy also earned his wings when Floyd Martin, chief instructor at the airport, turned him loose for his "solo" hop. Robert Geier of Santa Ana also made his "solo" flight the past week earning his wings.

According to figures released today by the Department of Air Commerce there were 14,763 pilots and 7344 aircraft holding active government licenses. California leads the way again with 2840 licensed pilots and 925 aircraft.

Hangar gossip. . . . Floyd Wright flew a charter trip to Stockton last Thursday in his Ryan Cabin ship. . . . It won't be long until the flying Martin family of Peggy, Eddie, Johnny and Floyd will be joined by an "Eaglet" and Floyd is going to be the father. . . . With all the new students at the airport, spectators are getting thrills watching students shoot landings but the boys who get the biggest thrills are the two Floyds when they turn the students loose for their "solo" flights. . . . Floyd Wright is doing a master's job of teaching ground school every Thursday night at the airport, which is being given free of charge to those interested. . . . My old friend Jess Elliott, last week introduced me to Paul Holland, who is test pilot for the Northrop Aviation Corp., and now all I am waiting for is an invitation to handle the controls of one of the new fast bombers that Paul is testing daily from Mines field in Los Angeles. . . . Happy Landings.

Harwood Assumes Duties As Postmaster Tomorrow

INSPECTOR IS HERE TODAY TO MAKE CHANGES

Frank Harwood will assume charge of the Santa Ana post-office, as postmaster, tomorrow. Although not yet formally notified of his appointment as acting postmaster from official Washington sources, Harwood has been notified by postoffice inspectors in Los Angeles to take over the office Tuesday.

Inspector Gould was in Santa Ana today to check the office over to Harwood, and the new administration will then be ready to function.

Harwood's temporary appointment as postmaster was first announced last Wednesday in a message from Senator W. G. McAdoo to The Register. Senator McAdoo said he had recommended Harwood's appointment, and that President Roosevelt had made it that day. However, Harwood's only notification of an official character has come through the postoffice inspectors.

Maneuverings Ended
Actual occupancy of the office tomorrow by Harwood will write final, for the present, at least, to the maneuvering of various candidates and factions for this political appointment.

Nearly half a score of candidates were mentioned at various times, but when the contest reached the Democratic county central committee, only three nominations for endorsement of the committee were offered. Harwood received a handy majority over Jules Markel and W. M. Burke on the first ballot, whereupon the committee approved Markel's motion to make the endorsement unanimous.

In view of past experience, there was some skepticism at first whether the committee's endorsement of Harwood would bring him the nomination. Later it was rumored that political influence was being brought to bear upon Senator McAdoo to cause him to ignore the central committee's endorsement of Harwood and recommend another candidate to the president.

McAdoo's announcement to The Register last Wednesday laid all rumors and skepticism at rest.

MEMORIES OF EARLY DAYS OF REGISTER RECALLED BY FIRST CARRIER FOR PAPER

Recalling interesting experiences as the first carrier boy for The Register and of other work given him by the newspaper, John A. Henderson today sent a letter to The Register, congratulating the paper on its Thirtieth Anniversary Edition and expressing appreciation for the help he has received from the paper.

The letter from Henderson, who is with the Robbins-Henderson insurance company, follows:

"Please accept my hearty congratulations on your Thirtieth Anniversary Edition published last night. Reading this interesting paper brings back many memories of the past 30 years, and brings freshly to my mind some things which The Register has helped me to accomplish. I feel that I owe a debt of gratitude to The Register, and perhaps Thanksgiving day, 1935, is a good time to express it.

First Carrier Boy

"For a little more than 30 ago, Stockford Wheaton, first circulation manager of The Register, hired me as The Register's first carrier boy. On the first day of publication I was on hand, as I remember it, with three other boys, to deliver The Register to the people of Santa Ana. My territory comprised all that part of the city north of Fourth street, and east of main street. Boys were expected to cover a lot of territory in those days, and when the old flat-bed press went wrong, it was often after dark, and sometimes after supper time before we got started on our deliveries. "On rainy days we would hire a horse and buggy from Wasser's livery stable at the corner of Fourth and French streets, and deliver the papers that way, as there were very few paved streets in 1905, and many of the streets did not have cement sidewalks, so

OIL COMPANY EMPLOYEES TO HOLD MEETING

The Orange county unit of the Union Employees' association will hold its December meeting in the Union Oil Recreation room at Brea on the evening of Tuesday, December 10, at 7:15 o'clock.

At that time, Arthur Corey, assistant superintendent of schools in Orange county, and recently nominated president of the California Teachers' association, will deliver an informal address on the political "isms" which he calls "Thumbs Up? Thumbs Down?"

Any employee of the Union Oil company, whether or not a member of this association is welcome. Those men who have previously heard Arthur Corey will welcome a chance to hear him again, while those hearing him for the first time have something to look forward to, as his subject matter is always worthwhile and his presentation able and effective, it was stated.

The Union Employees' association embraces 80 per cent of the industrial workers in the service of the Union Oil company. By industrial workers is meant those men employed in a non-supervisory capacity doing physical work in the drilling for, the production of, or the transporting of crude oil, it was explained.

There are seven units within the association with a potential membership of 1500 to which total the Orange county unit contributes 148. The association was organized for collective bargaining, and is a vertical trade group as opposed to the craft union or horizontal trade group.

"It is sometimes disparagingly referred to as a 'company union,' but that is a misnomer, as there is neither domination nor dictation in any contacts between the Union Employees' association and the Union Oil company," according to Secretary W. E. Griffith. "In fact the management of the Union Oil company have effectively demonstrated that a new concept of labor has been built into their thinking with the conclusion that labor must be handled as a human spirit rather than as a commodity."

INVESTMENT HOUSE OPENS S. A. OFFICE

Opening of a Santa Ana office was announced today by Griffith-Wagenseller and Durst, one of California's largest and most active investment banking houses. John R. Price, who is widely known throughout Orange county, has been appointed manager of the new branch.

Price for the past four years has served as special deputy of the state banking department in charge of liquidation of banks in Orange county. He has made an outstanding record in this capacity for the quick and efficient handling of assets and liquidation of closed institutions, it is said.

Price also brings to his new post a broad experience in the investment field and as a mining engineer in connection with large copper interests in Arizona and Mexico where he served for a number of years as secretary of the Federal Copper company.

Griffith-Wagenseller and Durst is one of the best known securities houses on the coast and maintains complete investment facilities, including an exceptionally strong analytical department. Offices of the firm are located in Los Angeles, Beverly Hills, Claremont, Pasadena, Redlands, San Bernardino, San Diego, Santa Monica and Santa Ana.

CLEAVER HAS LONG RECORD OF EFFICIENCY

A record of successful activity in the laundry business dating back to 1878 is one of the guarantees of efficiency tendered by the Sanitary Laundry, of Fullerton, California.

A. W. Cleaver, co-proprietor of the concern, first started in the laundry business in 1878, at the age of 18, in the Munger Laundry, Chicago, which was owned and operated by his father.

In 1882 the first Chicago Laundryowners' association was formed, and Cleaver, then manager of the Munger Laundry, was one of its charter members, and instrumental in its founding.

In 1888 he and his father built a new plant, the first in Chicago, he believed, to have been put up exclusively for laundry purposes. This was operated by him and his brother, Bert, until 1900, when it combined with 25 other plants to form the Sanitary Laundry company.

Cleaver left Chicago for Los Angeles, where he established Cleaver's Laundry. After selling this concern to Munger's, he spent the next few years in real estate activity, before founding the Excelsior Laundry, in San Diego.

This he sold, and following the World war, in which he served as a laundry expert in the quarter-master corps, he came to Fullerton, where he bought his present plant, which he has been operating successfully since.

His brother, K. M. Cleaver, is associated with him in the Fullerton enterprise.

ONE YEAR AGO....

One year ago Harwood's announced the opening of an Exclusive Electrical Store handling the complete Westinghouse line. Realizing that Electrical Merchandising is a highly specialized business, the owner determined not to handle anything but ELECTRICAL MERCHANDISE. It will never be a "side-line" at Harwood's.

Much care was used in the selection of personnel. Men who had many years of experience in various lines of electrical appliances were chosen, in order to bring to the customer that SPECIALIZED knowledge and experience so necessary in the selection of the proper type of appliance and to intelligently discuss with the customer operating costs, rates, kitchen planning, etc.

In the setting up of the Service Department, a man was selected who was a Westinghouse factory expert, having been employed there for 15 years, a licensed electrician, thoroughly familiar with all problems pertaining to electricity and electric appliances. All service work is done IN OUR OWN PLANT under his supervision. No service work is let out on contract and in all transactions the customer deals directly with Harwood's.

In the choice of merchandise, Harwood's selected a line known the world over as a leader in quality and long life. For 50 years WESTINGHOUSE has held that leadership and is known as the greatest name in the electrical industry.

That this was a sound foundation upon which to build a business has been proven by the fact that over twice as much business has been done by this firm in its first year of operation as was anticipated when the store was started.

The loyalty of Westinghouse Owners, their confidence in our statements, their belief in our knowledge and trust in our integrity has enabled us to achieve in one year what we consider an enviable record in this locality. We want people to come to us and buy with confidence . . . we shall continue to merit it.

The gift of a Westinghouse Streamline Refrigerator, Range, Water Heater or any appliance is the finest gift that can be given . . . It is a mark of distinction as well as the proof of good judgment to have Westinghouse in your home.

Ebell Women Anticipate Good Attendance at Benefit Party

Decorating committee members of Ebell Fifth Household Economic section have found problems regarding the benefit party scheduled for Wednesday afternoon in Ebell clubhouse, simplified through co-operation with another hostess group to entertain there on the following day. For on Thursday, Women's Auxiliary, Episcopal Church of the Messiah, is holding its annual afternoon and evening affair (cards and dance in the afternoon and dance in the evening) and will place elaborate decorations long enough in advance that the Ebell group will have the advantage of them.

Mrs. L. E. Allen, Mrs. Ellis Diehl and Mrs. D. E. Liggett comprise the Ebell section decorating committee and will assist the church women in putting to place their appointments on a definitely Chinese theme. In the Oriental setting will be innumerable card tables on Wednesday afternoon, all of them arranged for serving a dessert course at 12:30 o'clock, opening hour of the Ebell section party.

Mrs. D. D. Waynick and Mrs. George Raymer, ticket committee, today expressed gratification at the rapid sale of tickets, insuring an unusually well-attended party. Work of arranging tables and chairs fell to the committee composed of Mesdames Tarver Montgomery, Severin Schulte, E. Marshall and F. B. Pimental. The largest committee is that named to arrange for refreshments, and composed of Mesdames Herbert Krahling, F. F. Mead (section leader), Cood Adams, D. A. Harwood, S. A. Jones, Howard Stone, Lynn Ostrander, O. H. Umberham, Charles Bowman, H. C. Kirk and Claude C. Ream.

Every guest will receive a little special gift from the manufacturing company co-operating with Ebell section in giving the party. But there will also be special gifts for high scores in auction and contract bridge, both versions of the game being scheduled. To Mrs. P. B. Gillespie, Mrs. Carl Klatt and Mrs. M. D. Borgmeyer was delegated the duty of selecting these awards.

Holiday Guests Inspire Smart Dinner Dance Of Younger Set

Enlivening the holiday visit in the Southland of those two charming young girls of the James Irvine family circle at San Joaquin ranch, the Misses Kate Lillard and Prudence Roberts, was a gay dinner dance at which Miss Betty Timmons entertained Saturday evening in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Timmons, Red Hill avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Timmons received their young daughter, Miss Betty, who was vivacious and lovely in her smart brown satin dress, and other girls in the party were equally charming in graceful formal gowns.

With Christmas just around the corner, so to speak, the hostess conspired with her mother, to suggest that gracious season in decorative details of the dinner hour. The dinner table was sparkling with crimson candles, mounds of California holly, and similar charming touches.

Places were laid for the hostess, Miss Timmons, and the Misses Prudence Roberts, Kate Lillard, Betty Mae West, Elinor Doyle, Eleanor Cogan and Mary Holmes, and their dancing partners, Messrs Ben Hall, Hollywood, Jimmie Doyle, Tommie Tradewell, Francis Moffet, Noble Sellers, Nolan Rasher and Don Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Timmons had arranged for the dance program by means of a recording set, and the dancing was given a delightful setting in the big playroom, scene of so many friendly affairs in the Timmons home.

CONTRAST LENDS NEEDED SPARKLE TO MATRON'S ALL-PURPOSE FROCK

PATTERN 2448

By ANNE ADAMS

Contrast's the exciting fashion story told by this smart all-occasion frock — contrast — and slender lines that will make any woman the lovely picture she longs to be. Friends will be impressed when they learn you made it yourself, and you'll enjoy telling them how easy it really was. A light-color vestee and jabot are ever so flattering allabouted against a dark frock, and stamp you as definitely smart this season. Feet and ankles actually look smaller 'neath the gently flaring skirt, while vertical seaming adds inches to your height. Choose a soft crepe, synthetic sheer, or satin, and highlight it with a jabot and vestee of velvet or crepe.

Pattern 2448 is available in sizes 16, 18, 20, 34, 36, 40, 42 and 44. Size 36 takes 3 3/4 yards of 39-inch fabric and 1/2 yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

I don't know how long the wild duck season lasts, but I do know the season is never closed on domestic ducks and geese. I have vivid memories of being left to pick some twelve of the pesky things when sickness put the household duties on my young shoulders. . . . there were feathers clear from our house into town and back again! Had I known then what I do now, how easy it would have been! When you want to pick a bird by the dry method here's what you do. Strip off the coarse outside feathers and don't bother about the under-feather down. Melt a pound of paraffin in a round bottomed pan, have it under the bubbling point, dip the bird quickly, turning to coat all parts, then wrap in newspapers and leave for 15 minutes. Peel off the paper and practically all of the down will come off with the wax. What remains can be singed off.

EAT AND GROW SLIM
Orange juice (1-2 cup juice with juice of a lemon and water to fill the glass fully)
1 large egg, soft boiled
2 thin slices toasted rye bread
1-2 pat butter
1 cup coffee with 1-4 cup hot skimmed milk, no sugar.
Calory total, 395.

Today's recipe is in answer to a reader's request for a 3-layer birthday cake and appropriate frosting. I hope she likes it.
Cream Lemon Layer Cake
11-2 cups sugar
2 tablespoons melted butter
2 tablespoons milk beaten with 5 egg yolks
3 egg whites beaten stiff
2 cups sifted cake flour mixed with 1 teaspoon, each, soda and cream of tartar.
1-2 teaspoon salt
1-3 teaspoon almond extract.

The first step is to beat the egg yolks until thick and yellow, gradually adding to them one cup of the sugar, then the melted butter and milk. Sift flour before measuring, then add soda and cream of tartar and sift twice again. Mix smoothly into the yolk mixture and finish by cutting and folding in the 3 whites beaten until they will cut with a knife, then beaten to a meringue with the half cup of sugar.

Divide the batter between 3 layer cake tins, and for safety in removing from the pans, fit rounds of buttered paper to each pan. The oven should be heated to 350 degrees, the heat lowered as soon as the cakes have risen. Baking time about 18 minutes.

Cream Filling For Layers
The grated rind of a large lemon
1-4 cup lemon juice mixed with 1 cup boiling water and 1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons butter
Cornstarch to thicken.
Mix all but the cornstarch and boil for 10 minutes. Slowly stir in dissolved starch until the filling is thick and clear, then cook 20 minutes over hot water. Spread between the layers when nearly cold.

The frosting for the outside of the cake should be a boiled one, and it may be white or tinted, but white is better when the cake is to be decorated. The decorating frosting should be a butter type. Make it this way: Put into a mixing bowl 1 cup sifted powdered sugar, drop in 2 egg yolks (use whites for boiled frosting) and 6 tablespoons very soft butter. Beat until smoothly mixed, adding a trifle more sugar if too soft. Flavor or color as desired. If you can wangle a frosting tube in artistic manner, make flowers, etc. If not, look for simple directions in tomorrow's Mixing Bowl.

Little Sisters Enjoy Parties on Successive Birthdays

With two small daughters celebrating birthday anniversaries within a week's time, Mrs. Ersa Burns gave precedence to parties for them, in the family celebration of holiday week.

Friday was the eighth anniversary of little Miss Beverly Burns, and she was privileged to invite eight of her playmates to share a happy afternoon. Mrs. Burns had the assistance of her Thanksgiving house-guest, Mrs. J. C. Tweed of Oakland, and of Mrs. Thomas Smith, in directing the merry games. There was the joy of blowing out birthday candles when a delicious cake was served with other dainties at the close of the afternoon.

Miss Beverly received many pretty gifts from her young guests who were Bonnie Smith, Constance Cole, Peggy Was, Jane Dunton, Jeanne Gordon, Betsy Householder, Barbara Montgomery and Mary Lou McNeill.

At the earlier party when little Miss June Burns' fifth birthday anniversary was celebrated, the same general plan was adopted, with June as hostess to as many of her kindergarten friends as she was years old. There were games and gifts and of course a birthday cake with its five little candles, all shared by June with Dorothy Lou Kinyon, Charlene Wilkins, Dorothy Dunton, Mary Ann Smith and Llean Crawford.

BIBLE HISTORY OUTLINED BY REV. MAULAY

ORANGE, Dec. 2.—"Bible Day" was emphasized in the service of the First Presbyterian church yesterday, Dr. Robert Burns McAulay giving a sermon on the subject, "Coverdale Speaks".

The pastor traced the progress of Bible translation into English from the first effort by Bede in the eighth century, who worked on the book of John, through the work of King Alfred and the New Testament translation by Tyndale in 1525 to the first translation of the entire Bible by Coverdale in 1535. He pointed out that all this work was done in the face of opposition on the part of the church itself and often of the state as well.

"The Coverdale translation was the first significant work of its kind," the speaker said. "As the Luther Bible was the basis of the German language, so the English Bible became the foundation of the English language as it is today."

He outlined the progress of later translations, with special emphasis on the King James version in 1611 and the American revised version in 1901.

An exhibit of Bibles included one published in 1611, the property of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Compton, and Bibles in 25 different foreign languages.

Y DELEGATES RETURN FROM ANNUAL MEET

The "frontiers of 1935" were laid open to the high school boys of Southern California, and the challenge was given them to march forward and do some real pioneering work as 400 such boys gathered over the weekend at Whittier college for the annual Older Boys' conference of the Y.M.C.A. Herbert Thomas and Glenn Layton were the Santa Ana Y.M.C.A. representatives at this meeting.

"The first law of nature is not self-preservation, according to Dr. Carl Knopf," said Thomas, in commenting on the program of the conference, "but the preservation of the species, of the group, of the human family. It was in such a statement that the keynote of the conference was sounded, and the challenge put before the group of selected boys, representing thousands of high school students south of the Tehachapi. The burden of social responsibility was laid squarely on the rising generation, with a challenge for them to undertake to carry it for the good of mankind."

"Dr. Knopf gave the boys a clear statement of methods of procedure. He stated that all social and political groups, whether socialist, communist, fascist, capitalist, or otherwise, are agreed on three fundamental things. They agree that something is wrong with our human organization, that something should be done about it, and that something can be done, but their point of disagreement comes on what to do and how to do it. As Christian patriots, we believe that the method of Jesus, founded on love, goodwill, peace and justice is the right method and the only workable one."

"World peace is possible, said Dr. Knopf, by the removal of three elements which would eliminate peace. First, remove the military spirit. Second, remove the profit from war and from preparation for war, and third, remove the element of admiration for military achievement which attracts attention and approval. With these three elements removed, militarism will languish regardless of other considerations."

The program centered on "social frontiers, vocational frontiers and religious frontiers," and in each field the boys were under the leadership of speakers of authoritative positions, who presented the most up-to-date information available which was later discussed by the boys in small groups.

A. Haven Smith of Orange was general chairman of the conference committee, and among the notable speakers, in addition to Dr. Carl Knopf of U.S.C., were Henry O. Dyck, principal of the Metropolitan high school of Los Angeles, and President W. O. Men-donhall of Whittier college.

TOUCHES LIVE WIRE; SEVERELY BURNED

Accidentally touching a "live wire" in the electrical apparatus of the House of Magic, which he was preparing to exhibit this afternoon at the Broadway theater, R. L. Smallman, who came here for the stage show, was burned painfully and rushed to the Santa Ana Valley hospital for treatment at noon today.

It was reported Smallman was an exhibitor for the House of Magic, at the recently closed San Diego exposition. Theater officials declared "the show must go on" and Smallman's partner will put on the act.

The apparatus being conditioned for the show, a 45-minute act, included an instrument to picture sound waves and a medical invention, fever machine which is said to pop popcorn, and do other stunts. Smallman was said not to be in serious condition.

Court Notes

Pleading guilty to a drunk charge, Thomas Uraus, 617 Central avenue, was assessed a $15 fine in City Judge J. G. Mitchell's court Saturday. Henry Moody pleaded guilty to the same charge and was given 10 days in the county jail.

Maria Miores pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault in City Judge J. G. Mitchell's court Saturday. She will face trial Friday afternoon.

Otis McCann, of 823 North Lacy street, pleaded not guilty to the charge of assault and battery, in City Judge J. G. Mitchell's court today. His wife was the complaining witness. The case was set for trial without jury, at 10 a. m. Thursday. He was arrested Sunday evening at Fourth and French streets by Officers Sherwood and Moulton.

Mrs. Margaret Beitzel, guest in the automobile of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Newton when it turned over on the road encircling Lake Hen-shaw, San Diego county, last September 22, today filed suit in superior court against the Newtons asking $10,388 damages. She claimed Newton was intoxicated at the wheel of his car when the accident occurred.

The suit brought by Ida A. Delat against the First National Bank of Orange, to quiet title to 15 acres of property west of Santa Ana, was continued today by Superior Judge H. G. Ames to January 16, on motion of the plaintiff, on condition that the plaintiff pay the bank's costs.

PASTOR GIVES STERN REBUKE TO SEN. M'ADOO

Delivering a scathing criticism of Senator W. G. McAdoo and "other old men who lose their heads over young girls" as making a mockery of the holy institution of marriage, the Rev. Walter Scott Buchanan spoke before a large crowd in the First Christian church last evening, at a service especially devoted to "The Secret of Happiness in Married Life."

"Neither beauty nor money guarantees a successful marriage. Love is the foundation of a happy home. Divergent interests cannot succeed in one home, which must be a mutual partnership if it is to be happy-sharing work, play and bank account," said the minister.

Lack of home training, he said, is a frequent cause of marriage failure. Parents should train their children for marriage.

Deploring the home as the foundation of the nation, the minister declared that if lawmakers fail, it is because the home has failed.

He concluded by saying that no home can be happy without Christ. "Take God as your partner," he urged.

An unusually fine program was presented, honoring married couples of the church and those who were married by the pastor in surrounding communities. Guests were in the audience who came as far as Alhambra and Los Angeles to attend this service.

The choir, under the direction of Frank S. Pierce, presented the anthem "On Life's Highway" by Shelley. Soloists of the choir gave special selections including "At Dawning" (Cadmian), by Mrs. Sadi-bell Green; "O Promise Me" sung by Miss Elizabeth Morgan; and "Because," sung by G. Willard Bassett. "When You and I Were Young Maggie" was sung for the oldest couple in attendance, Mr. and Mrs. James Mills, of Santa Ana.

One of the features of the service was gifts of flowers donated Haid's Flower Shop, of North Main street, to the following guests: the couple most recently married, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Adams, from Alhambra; to the youngest grandmother, Mrs. A. W. Rimel, of Santa Ana; to the youngest mother, Mrs. Forest Bennett, of Anaheim; to the couple having the greatest number of children in attendance at the service, Mr. and Mrs. R. McCullough, of Cincinnati, Ohio; the oldest couple in attendance, married by the pastor, was Mr. and Mrs. Duncan of the First Christian church. The service was especially ar-

STRANGE CARGO OF GROTESQUE BEASTS HERE

A strange cargo of grotesque beasts arrived in Santa Ana today, but they were not much in evidence, not being scheduled to make a public appearance until tomorrow night.

The occasion tomorrow night ceremonies in connection with the official opening of the Christmas season, and the animals which arrived here are the weird creatures which form part of the famous Gilmore Circus parade, which will be part of the parade at 7 p. m. tomorrow night.

The grotesque animals, which are up to 15 feet in height, and clowns will parade through the business section of the city, where more than 25,000 persons are expected to congregate. Sixty Boy Scouts will be used for the legs of the animals and clowns. Local musical organizations and marching units will be in the parade, as well as an automobile section.

When the parade starts at 7 p. m., all the lights in the business district will be flashed on, illuminating store windows which are entered in a prize contest and the colorful ornaments on the light poles. A bomb will be fired, marking the start of the parade and turning on the lights.

Following the parade, merchants of the city will be hosts to visitors at a great preview of Christmas merchandise.

Gilmore Circus parade officials, here today, said that more than a half million persons in Hollywood saw the parade Saturday night and that Hollywood boulevard was so jammed hundreds could not see the parade. Many expressed a determination to come to Santa Ana to see the parade, because they could not see it in Hollywood.

AVIATOR INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Dale G. Deckert, 420 North Broadway, received minor injuries in a head-on collision about 7:40 Saturday evening at Los Angeles and Valencia streets when his car was struck by a car driven by Marcus J. Cline, of Anaheim. Cline was arrested later on a charge of drunk and drunk driving as result of the accident.

Deckert was driving north on Los Angeles street when he observed a car approaching him and weaving on the street. He came to a stop but not in time to avoid being hit, resulting in cuts on his knees. He was riding alone.

Cline, 54 years old, who lives at 424 North Los Angeles street, Anaheim, was charged with drunkenness by Anaheim officers. Deckert later signed a complaint of drunk driving. Bail was set at $500 on the police charge and at $250 on the drunk driving charge. He posted sufficient bail to warrant his release until his hearing at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow before Judge Frank Tausch.

Deckert, licensed pilot, said today the incident was proof of his claim that flying is safer than automobilism.

NEW TELEPHONE DIRECTORIES OUT

New Orange county telephone directories were being distributed in Santa Ana today by workers for the Southern California Telephone company.

The books, which contain 102 pages of names, numbers and addresses of subscribers, also carry 72 pages as a classified section. The old books, issued a year ago, contained 97 and 60 pages respectively.

FIRE EXTINGUISHED

FULLERTON, Dec. 2.—Fullerton fire department answered a call late Saturday night and extinguished a brush fire in the canyon just off Luanne drive, east of Hillcrest park.

ranked as the third feature service given in a series of ten by the church, known as the Loyalty Attendance Campaign program.

RADIANT GLORY OF HOME TOLD BY DR. WARMER

Home is the place where our stomachs get three square meals a day and our hearts a thousand, said Dr. George A. Warmer in his sermon on "The Radiant Glory of the Home" last evening, featuring the "bride's recognition" service at the First M. E. church.

A capacity house responded to announcement of this unique service.

Referring to the food for heart and body found in the home, Dr. Warmer added that "there are delights no hostelry can furnish."

"Home is the place where our troubles are shut out and our love is shut in. It is the sheltering against the conflicts, the strains, and the worriment of the world. Here love reigns supreme. Love cannot be defined any more than electricity. You know it by its effects. Home is the place where it manifests itself in all of its wonder-creating power."

Other interesting features of the service were the artists' solos. Marquise Hare sang "O Promise Me"; Mrs. Irma Rutter sang "At Dawning"; Mrs. George A. Warmer sang "I Love You Truly"; Mrs. June Burns sang "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes," accompanied on the cello by Edward Burns.

The community singing was composed of "sweetheart" songs. Mrs. J. W. McCormack was presented with a floral piece for the oldest wedding garment displayed, a gown 68 years old. Mrs. Charles Dunning was presented with the other floral tribute for wearing the latest wedding gown. Mrs. Dunning is a recent bride, having been married in the chapel of the church in September.

EXPENDITURES NOVEMBER SERA TOTAL $144,174

A total of $144,174.55 filtered through business channels of Orange county during the past month, as a result of expenditures by the Orange county SERA.

Auditor Robert E. Walker of the SERA here, reported today on statistics for the four-week period, which saw a continuance of the decrease in amounts expended for work relief and a rise in direct relief expenditures.

All work relief as SERA, except distribution of surplus commodities furnished by the government and the operation of the nursery projects, has been discontinued. The work part of the government relief program has been assumed by the Works Progress Administration, to which organization the SERA certifies those eligible for work in the WPA.

Direct relief expenditures have increased because of the increases in the case load of SERA. Intake of new cases is higher this year than last year, when the program started.

Out of the $144,174.55 spent by SERA during the past four weeks, a total of $126,273 was spent on direct relief, as compared with but $126,33 for work relief. Transient relief cost $14,905, administrative costs $12,416.66 and $2721.69 was spent from the bond funds.

In the five-week period preceding November, a total of $180,707.20 was spent. September expenditures amounted to $147,453.78.

ANOTHER MILESTONE

Today marks a new milestone in the growth of Santa Ana. Today all city offices are functioning in the new $150,000 city hall at Third and Birch streets.

Tonight the city council will hold its first meeting in the city council quarters.

Tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock this building, erected as a PWA project, will be dedicated officially with prominent civic leaders, county and city officials participating in appropriate ceremonies.

Coincidental with the official dedication of the new city hall the merchants of Santa Ana will open the Christmas holiday season with a parade. Store windows will be unveiled and decorative street lights will be turned on.

Twenty-five thousand persons are expected to come here tomorrow for the official opening of the Christmas season. Many will come here for the city hall dedication.

Merchants of the city, confident business is steadily growing better, publicly predict that Christmas shopping this year will exceed any season since 1928.

A new city hall and a new spirit of confidence on the part of the merchants will do much toward preparing Santa Ana for the New Year which is expected to be the most prosperous in the city's history.

"JUDGE NOT, —"

Miss Justine Whitney has been indicted by the grand jury. She has been arrested and released on bail.

Date on which she will answer charges before the superior court has been set for Friday, December 13.

Miss Whitney has been county recorder for twenty-one years. Until the last few weeks not one word has been said against her honesty. For two decades her name was clear. She has given the best years of her life to the public.

The fact that Miss Whitney has been indicted by the grand jury does not establish her guilt. Testimony given before the grand jury does not, necessarily, mean she is guilty. Miss Whitney has not been given an opportunity to prove her innocence.

Until the county recorder has been convicted by a jury of her peers, she is considered innocent. That is the law of the land.

It is not the province of anyone to judge or besmirch the name of a public official without just cause.

Let us temper justice with mercy and wait until Miss Whitney has been given a fair trial and has been given an opportunity to defend herself against the charges preferred by the grand jury before we condemn her.

"Judge not lest ye be judged."

AUTOMOBILES AND LIONS

The newspaper makeup editor—the harassed functionary who stands beneath a mercury lamp and tells a toiling printer to insert this story here and that story there—is sometimes, quite unconsciously, an editorial writer. By putting two contrasting stories side by side he can point a moral more deftly than the most eloquent of scribes.

We saw an example of it the other day. There was a little story from France, telling how lions which had escaped from some zoo or circus had waylaid and eaten two honest Frenchmen. And the adjoining story, of equal length and prominence, was one of our own familiar traffic stories telling how two Americans were killed by an automobile.

And the makeup man, it seems to us, did well to put those two stories side by side. We get a shudder out of thinking of ravenous lions roaming through a civilized countryside—and then we are reminded that our own automobiles, shuttling along the highways, are more of a menace to human life than all the beasts of Africa.

FOOTBALL OVERWEIGHT

That Louisiana football coach who was shot by the father of a lad whom he had dismissed from the high school football squad can be written down as one more victim of football's much-discussed "over-emphasis."

Any man who would become so disturbed over his son's failure to make the football team that he would go out and shoot the coach must have become more or less unbalanced on the subject, of course. But is he, in that respect, so very much different from the rest of us?

Any nation which commonly permits football coaches to get more pay and fame than university presidents themselves, which lets a schoolboy's game become an expensive, over-bally-hooded sport that is shot through with the very spirit of professionalism, and judges its colleges by their football teams rather than by their scholastic achievements—isn't it, also, more or less unbalanced on the subject?

Sayings Of Will Rogers

There is no quicker way in the world to have folks lose interest in a murder trial than to call in the alienists.

(Fiorella H. LaGuardia, now mayor of New York, attracted the attention of Will Rogers a long time ago. On April 26, 1932, Will wrote this about him:)

When you think you have heard all the devilment about anything why you haven't heard anything till you hear from a little Italian congressman, (and a Republican too, strange to say) from New York City, LaGuardia.

He's always got the evidence. He dragged in a trunk full of cancelled checks yesterday that brokers had given to a financial writer.

You know its too bad everybody was so busy getting in on it that no one had time to investigate Wall Street before '29, when the horse was being stolen.

When I was Mayor of Beverly Hills, I know I was worse off than Mayor Walker. I had to furnish my own car and got pinched in it, and received no salary at all, and had to keep my screen stars out of devilment. Course there was always a lot of people out here claim I was overpaid.

Day By Day In Washington

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2. — Prof. Thomas N. Carver, of Harvard, thinks the New Dealers are not entitled to the name "Liberals" and he insists they ought to be called "Coercionists."

Today business and industry are beginning to feel the effects of a new coercion under the Guffey law, which, when supplemented by the Walsh bill that has already passed the Senate, may give the federal government more powers of coercion over business than ever was possible under the NRA and the Blue Eagle.

It has just become known that the government, in asking for bids for various commodities that it uses, is insisting on a literal interpretation of the provisions of the Guffey law. Thus, the railroads which carry mail cannot have contracts unless they agree to buy coal from companies that have complied with the coal code prescribed under the Guffey law. Also, in the purchase of automobiles, there must be a certification by all bidders that the coal used by auto companies was mined in accordance with the code in the Guffey law.

It is possible, of course, to construe the law so that a contractor who builds a public building can certify that the coal he alone uses in the construction job itself was mined by a company complying with the Guffey act, or that a dealer who offers automobiles to the government can certify that the coal he himself uses is Guffey-mined coal. But, if this is done, then the plan intent of the law passed by Congress is defeated.

Under the law, every contractor who buys materials for a public building must make an affidavit swearing that the companies from which he buys materials used Guffey-mined coal. It is within the power of the federal government to use this indirectly to control the labor standards and the code provisions of all coal companies because, even though the latter might refuse to accept the high penalty tax imposed on them and even though they may have gone to court to restrain the act as being unconstitutional, the federal government, through the enormous power directly and indirectly involved in making purchases, can force coal companies to comply or face certain ruin.

Railroads, moreover, are allowed to lose government made contracts, and yet they may have been buying their coal more cheaply than would be the case from companies that now comply with the Guffey code. It has been estimated that the total coal bill of the railroads will be increased to somewhere between $20,000,000 and $60,000,000 a year on account of the Guffey law. The same will be true relatively in other businesses that feel compelled to buy coal from companies which, under the Guffey law, comply with the standards set up by the federal government.

The ostensible purpose of all this is to give labor better treatment. What it means, of course, is that the price of coal will go up and the consumer will have to pay more because the companies that supply coal will be unable to defy the government bureaus. They will not be able to stand the loss of customers who refuse to buy from them.

As for various supplies, it is conceivable that the larger manufacturers may refuse to bid on government requirements, and, in the bid, the government will not only get inferior quality but will have to pay a higher price. Thus, the taxpayer will be compelled to meet the expense not of purchases made at the lowest cost as heretofore but at the price inserted in the bids by those who know their low-cost competition will not bid.

The principle contained in the Guffey act is also contained in the Walsh bill, which passed the Senate at the last session and remains on the House calendar for early action in January. This measure provides that the government shall buy nothing from anybody who doesn't meet certain labor standards, which means unquestionably the revival of labor codes such as the NRA set up and possibly price-fixing provisions as well.

If the Guffey act is upheld as to the constitutionality of its price-fixing clauses, there will be a series of price-fixing powers inserted in federal statutes that would make the federal authority absolutely powerful in controlling what industry shall charge and what labor's wages shall be.

Some labor leaders foresee the trend toward Government control of prices as well as wages, as under the Nazi government of Germany. The Walsh bill is a step in that direction and the actual operation these days of the Guffey coal law in its coercive features is an index of what may be forthcoming with respect to all industry at the next session.

President Roosevelt has wavered from time to time in his position on the Walsh bill, but it is doubtful whether he would veto it because he expressed no objection to the same idea when embraced in coercion by the use of the federal Guffey act that he signed. Coercion of purchase was tried in connection with the Blue Eagle, but it never was authorized by Congress, so it was never effectively enforced. Now Congress, through the Guffey act, has formally embodied the idea in law.

More Truth Than Poetry

THE OLD-FASHIONED HIRED GIRL
(Who is a vanished type)

She was sometimes a bit of a problem,
She was sometimes a regular pearl;
But I know that she used
To be boss of the roost.
Did the old early day hired girl,
She always did all of the washing,
She always cooked all of the chow;
She would scrub, she would sweep
And sing youngsters to sleep—
I wish she was with us right now.

She got up at five in the morning,
Put the bread in the oven to bake;
Made a couple of pies
That delighted our eyes,
And now and then made us a cake.
She made sure that the kids wore their rubbers,
And often she took them to school;
And she put on the wraps
Of the tiniest chaps
When the days were a little bit cool.

She never attended a movie,
She never went out of a night,
Making calico frocks
And knitting wool socks
Always gave her the greatest delight.
One day when I had the dyspepsia
She went down to the general store
For a bottle of rye
Which I drank on the sly.
Gosh! I wish she was with us once more.

Thoughts On Modern Life

BY GLENN FRANK

THE POLITICAL INCENSE POT

From several sources I have recently heard a story, probably mythical but surely suggestive, that is going the rounds in Europe.

A French chemist, so the story goes, was called to Rome to consult with Mussolini on the problem of poison gases in the Ethiopian push.

With the customary impressiveness of routine, the French expert was directed into the large room in the Palazzo Venezia, that Il Duce uses for his office.

The Master of Italy acknowledged the presentation of the visitor, and left him standing for a full half hour while he went on with work at his desk.

Finally Il Duce looked up and, with a studied incisiveness of inquiry, said, "Well, can you tell me which is the most destructive gas available for warfare?"

The French chemist is supposed to have answered the dictator in one word.

"INCENSE!"

There is a terrible truthfulness about this story, which, probably untrue literally, is truer as fiction than it might be as fact had the incident actually occurred. For as a story it has probably been thrown up out of a widespread realization in Italy that the unduly centralized power that dictatorship accumulates inevitably poisons the dictator.

None but the gods, at best, can long stand the fumes of the incense pot.

Sooner or later too much power over the life and enterprise of a people poisons and perverts even the ablest leadership.

The American system of checks and balance is, for the moment, a favorite target of many supposedly liberal Americans, but, as the American mind takes second thought, as it begins to sum up the full fruits of excessively centralized power in Russia, Italy and Germany—the wholesale liquidation of social classes in disfavor with the dictatorship, blood purges of opposition forces, the high carnival of religious and racial persecution, the utter failure to come within hailing distance of even the depression standards of living that the surviving democracies have maintained, and so on.

I suspect that we shall emerge with a new appreciation of the wisdom of the Fathers who set up safeguards against any undue centralization of power at any point in the American scheme of government.

The greatest obligation resting upon us of this generation is to keep our heads and not to be swept away by the old and obsolete delusion that centralized power can ever be anything but an ultimate menace to the people.

WATCH YOUR THOUGHT

As a general rule children follow the patterns we set for them. "Now don't tell me that," says Uncle Ben. "Don't tell me that I'm responsible for Jimmie's awful habit of baiting his relatives until they hate him. I never say a word about them. No matter what they do I keep my mouth shut. In my opinion they're nothing but a lot of nit-wits, but of course I never say a word."

It isn't necessary to speak. Communication is not confined to language. What Uncle Ben feels so strongly about himself to the world. He can't hide what he thinks and feels from Jimmie, for he has cherished that feeling until it has become a prejudice.

"I wish," said a mother, "that you would talk to my boy. He annoys the whole family. He talks back to his grandfather, argues with him, lays down the law to him. I'm desperate."

"Do you yourself like grandfather?" I asked.

"What a question! Of course I do. You can't dislike your own people."

"Oh, yes you can. I can tell from the tones of your voice how you feel about it. I can see it in your eyes. Your boy is merely uttering your secret thoughts. Why not forget that grandfather makes noises with his soup, smokes in bed and uses language? Why not feel in your heart that you like him? If you do, your son will stop nagging him."

Thought is positive, and the conduct that follows is emphatic. That doesn't mean that you can, by wishing, think the children into being truthful or washing their faces or being honor students, or having good manners. No, it isn't as simple as all that. Before your thought can influence a child it has to have deep roots in your own mind. How hard do you wish the children to be honor students? To what extent will you go in your daily practice and habits to make them truthful? Mannerly? And of course it's only a joke to think Jimmie into cleanliness. By and by he'll be so clean you'll look with awe at his shining nose and scarlet ears. What I am concerned about are fundamental habits of mind.

When parents go regularly to church, children rarely stay away from service. The parents' thought is so positive and their conduct so emphatic that the children follow.

low the pattern they set. The same thing holds when parents don't go to church. That thought takes root in the minds of the children, and they don't go to church.

Children imitate us in word and deed. What you would have them think, you must think. What you would have them do, you must do.

Luckily the power of thought and the pattern of behavior make for good as well as for ill. We can, by holding on to a good thought and living by it, strengthen it into a creed, and so pray a child out of his error and the straight high road to success. I've seen just that. I've seen a failing child converted by thoughts into a successful one. I've seen a child lifted out of helplessness and carried through to success. I've seen a child made well.

Watch your thought. It's a mighty force in the life of your child.
